Truman Regime 'Crawled' With Reds, McCarthy Says

Dean Insists Russia Take Role in Talks

Red Demand Soviets Participate as Neutral Refused by U.S. Envoy

PANMUNJOM (AP) — U. S. envoy Arthur Dean said today "some method must be worked out" to assure the attendance of Soviet Russia as a full participant at a Korean peace conference.

The Reds want Russia to attend as a neutral. Dean charged this would mean the Soviet Union would not be bound by conference decisions.

Hold Russia as Threat

He said Chinese and North Korean negotiators working on plans for the peace conference are holding Russia "as a threat over our heads."

Allied and Communist diplomats met for 3 hours and 45 minutes, the longest continuous session since the preliminary talks opened Oct. 26. They will meet again Friday.

Meanwhile, explanations to war prisoners who have refused to go home remained stalled and there was no indication that the interviews would be renewed.

Dean read two long statements at the preliminary peace talks ridiculing the Communist position that Russia is a neutral.

"Why are you afraid to have the U. S. S. R. at the political conference as a full participant?" he asked.

Dean Poses Questions

"Is the real reason . . . because: (A) the U. S. S. R. does not wish to be bound by the agreement reached at the political conference and (B) you wish to use as a threat at the conference the possible non-aggression of the U. S. S. R. or its noncompliance with the agreements reached?"

The Chinese delegate, Huang Hua, replied with what Dean called "a bitter denunciation."

"It was unadulterated hogwash," Dean said, "accusing us of bad treatment of prisoners and atrocities in prisoner of war camps. I told them we'd make progress if we cut out these stump speeches."

Huang Hua told Dean that the United States started the Korean War; that Russia had striven in the United Nations "for years" for a peaceful settlement.

Russia Not Neutral

"You have attempted to negate the neutrality of the Soviet Union," the Chinese told Dean. "Are you at war with the Soviet Union?"

Dean replied that Russia "is not and cannot be a neutral nation. As to the role of truce neutrals at the (peace) conference we are willing to exchange views. That does not and it will not include the U. S. S. R."

"We are continuously and constantly in a state of warfare against everything for which the U. S. S. R. stands.

"The entire world knows we

ROYAL PAIR STOP OFF IN BERMUDA. Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh leave Bermuda's Parliament after the Queen addressed the legislative body, the first time a reigning British monarch has done so. Lt. Gen. Sir Alexander Hood, governor-general of Britain's oldest self-governing colony, accompanies the royal couple, who are making a six-months-30,000-mile commonwealth tour. The Queen is wearing a summer blue suit and Philip is dressed in a white admiral's uniform.

Golf at Top Of President's Holiday Plans

Ike, Mamie Settled In 'New Home' for Weekend With Family

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower, comfortably settled in a cozy new "Little White House," put golf at the top of his vacation agenda today.

The President flew here from Washington yesterday afternoon for a Thanksgiving holiday through Sunday with his family, three grandchildren and all.

Gets in Quick Round

He got in a round of golf at the exclusive Augusta National Golf Club shortly after he arrived, and planned more for today.

On the edge of the course near the 10th tee is situated the new 1½-story white brick cottage built by fellow members of the club for the President's use.

Called "Mamie's Cottage" for Mrs. Eisenhower, who is with the President, the house actually is much more than a cottage. There are no hard figures available on the cost of construction and the furnishings, which reportedly are in expensive good taste.

The lowest figure talked around Augusta is $40,000, the highest $130,000. Some of the few folks who have had a chance to inspect the place—all beautifully landscaped—say the bigger figure is far closer to being right than the lower.

Spacious Living Room

On the first floor is a spacious living room with a handsome fireplace, and two master bedrooms, each with an adjoining dressing room and bath.

Upstairs are two more large bedrooms with baths and dressing rooms, and another big living room. In the basement is a communications headquarters which keeps the President in constant touch with Washington, a completely modern kitchen and quarters for secret service agents.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower were reported to be delighted with the place, which will be used by other club members when

Stassen Sees Cut In Aid to Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Aid Director Harold Stassen has informed Congress it will be possible to make "a considerable reduction" in American military aid to Western Europe next year. He said that economic aid, with a few exceptions, can be ended.

Stassen set out these conclusions in a special report he sent to four congressional committees on Nov. 16. A summary of his letter was made public today by the Foreign Operations Administration (FOA).

By "next year," Stasson had reference to the next government fiscal year—the 12 months beginning next July 1.

His report to Congress summed up his views after attending a meeting of the 17-nation Organization for European Economic Cooperation.

Queen Visiting Jamaica After Bermuda Stop

Stratocruiser Carries British Royal Couple On Next Step of Trip

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh took off from Bermuda today for the second stage of their round-the-world British Commonwealth tour.

Their giant Stratocruiser Canopus headed southwest for Jamaica's Montego Bay Airport, where the royal party was due four hours later.

The Queen and her husband had risen before dawn for the early takeoff, after a crowded and jubilant one-day stop in Bermuda's pleasure isles.

Bonfires were readied on Jamaica's mountaintop to signal the young monarch's arrival. Gay flags, bunting and flowers bedecked Montego Bay and the Queen's route to the island capital, Kingston. A crowded program was planned for the royal party until it leaves by ship Friday for the Panama Canal and Commonwealth points in the Pacific.

The Queen wound up the busy first day of her six-month tour—she left London Monday night—with a state dinner given last night by Bermuda's Gov. Sir Alexander Hood at Government House.

Some 30 of the colony's top officials and dignitaries attended. The dinner was treated as a private function, with no announcement of details and no photographs.

Santa Claus

He Looks Forward To Parade Saturday

TO THE MARION CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:

Greetings to everyone in Marion again!

Your plans for this Christmas season sound like they are very good. I am sure I will enjoy my stay with you again. I think I will be able to finish up most of my work here at the North Pole and be able to get to the parade at 1 p.m. Saturday.

I rechecked my calendar and it looks like I will be able to stay around Marion until the big night Christmas Eve.

That will be a busy time for me, so I will have to leave Marion at 4:30 in the afternoon the day before Christmas. I have to get back here to the North Pole and pack up my sleigh for the trip around the world.

I'm looking forward to your wonderful Christmas Pageant, and I will see you people at 1 p.m. Saturday.

SAVED BY DUD CARTRIDGE

CLEVELAND (AP) — A dud cartridge in a robber's rifle saved the life of Arthur Schira, 60, early today, he told police. Schira, night clerk at the Hotel Marvin, said the bandit tried to fire at him with a .22 caliber rifle which failed to go off. Schira handed over $25 from a cash drawer and the robber fled through a rear door.

Canada Seen Okaying Quiz Of Gouzenko

Prime Minister's Reply To Request of Probers Believed Affirmative

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada appeared ready today to announce formally that U. S. Senate investigators can question ex-Russian Igor Gouzenko any time they want—but that the questioning may finger him for the Communists he exposed in 1946.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, in a statement to Parliament this afternoon, was scheduled to outline his government's reply to a second request from a U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee for an opportunity to question Gouzenko, former Soviet Embassy clerk who revealed a Russian spy ring operating in Canada. St. Laurent was slated to speak at about 2:30 p.m. EST.

May Meet in Secret

Unofficial sources speculated that arrangements might be made for a secret meeting between Gouzenko and a subcommittee representative somewhere in Canada. It apparently would be up to Gouzenko whether he wanted to run the risk of exposure by attending.

Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson outlined his government's new position on the Gouzenko request yesterday. He told the United Nations Correspondents Association in New York Gouzenko could, if he wished, go any place in the United States or Canada to talk to American investigators.

But if he does, Pearson added, Canada can no longer guarantee his safety or that of his family. Gouzenko, his wife and three children have been living under an assumed name and the protection of Canada's famed mounted police since he fled the Russian Embassy in Ottawa in 1946. He is now a Canadian citizen.

Pearson Hopeful

Pearson expressed confidence that the international tug-of-war over the former Soviet Embassy clerk would be cleared up to the satisfaction of both countries. U.S. Secretary of State Dulles told a Washington news conference yesterday he doubted the issue would put a lasting strain on U.S.-Canadian friendship.

St. Laurent also was due to disclose the identity of the "highly placed' Canadian who U. S. Atty. Gen. Brownell last week said questioned the loyalty of the late Harry Dexter White in a communication to the U. S. government in 1946.

Pearson said St. Laurent would have an "interesting" document to disclose about this. The foreign secretary also declared Canada felt Brownell should not have brought the matter up without the Canadian government's agreement.

Brownell had told the Senate security subcommittee headed by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) that FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover warned the Truman administration, in a letter sent to the White House Feb. 4, 1946, that a top-ranking Canadian had expressed alarm over the appointment of White to a high post

Unanimous Approval

Israel Rebuffed by U.N. In Jordan Riots, Killing

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Ignoring Israeli appeals, the U.N. Security Council by a 9-0 vote last night rebuked the Jewish state for the killing of 53 Arabs in Jordan's Kibya village and called on her to see that such actions do not happen again.

The resolution—sponsored by the United States, Britain and France—brought protests from both Jordan and Israel. They do not belong to the council and have no vote there.

Charges Bias

Israeli Delegate Abba Eban charged that the censure was loaded in favor of Jordan and warned that it might torpedo the direct Israeli-Jordan talks his government has demanded.

Sources close to Jordan labeled the resolution a "milk-sop" which merely chided Israel and did nothing to punish her.

Charles Malik of Lebanon, only Arab member of the 11-nation council, abstained on the vote along with Russia. Malik explained to reporters later he felt the resolution was not nearly strong enough and did not call for compensation to families of the Kibya victims.

Israel derived some consolation, however, from the Big Three's last-minute change in their resolution to take note of Eban's invoking of Article 12 of the Israel-Jordan armistice agreement to summon both parties to obligatory si esruc rpaOe eetn lalcik peace talks. One Israeli source said this was the only constructive result of the long, bitter Kibya discussion.

Setting Up Talks

U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was reported arranging with Jordan for a time and place for the projected talks. Arab sources indicated that Jordan, which ignored an earlier informal request for talks, would heed the U.N. summons.

Eban made a last-ditch effort last night to stave of the censure vote. He appealed to the council to think twice before it voted a censure which would "do nothing to advance the cause of Middle East peace" and merely took account of the "violent acts of the immediate past."

He said that the Arabs would look on the censure as a victory and as a U.N. sanction of their "determination" not to sign a permanent peace treaty with Israel.

State Promises Correct Report Of '52 Finances

The Ohio state auditor's office plans to issue a public announcement soon to correct a previous announcement indicating a number of cities, Marion among them, operated "in the red" in 1952.

A statement announcing this was contained in a letter received yesterday by Marion Mayor Harold F. Robinson from John H. Price, deputy inspector and supervisor of the auditor's office.

Dated Nov. 23, the letter said in part the public release on Nov. 9 listing certain cities in the red and others with excesses was a misinterpretation caused by an "unfortunate combination of figures" taken from reports made by city auditors. The letter further stated these figures "did not show the true financial picture at the close of 1952."

Mayor Robinson explained the letter was sent to him in response to a visit he, Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest and City Solicitor George A. Piacentino paid to the state auditor's office last week.

Date of the release to correct the misinterpretation was not mentioned in Price's letter. He said only that such a release is being prepared by the state auditor's office.

City Auditor Elmer Shaw issued a statement the day following the Nov. 9 release in which he denied Marion operated in the red last year.

Lone GAR Survivor Hospitalized in Duluth

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Albert Henry Woolson, 106, only survivor of the 2,675,00-man Union Army in the Civil War, was hospitalized late yesterday with a lung congestion.

St. Luke's Hospital attendants said today he was in fairly good condition. He was quoted as saying, "I'm not going to kick off yet."

HEADS OHIO BUILDERS

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A. B. Stanberry of Toledo is the new president of the Ohio Home Builders' Assn., succeeding Clinton R. Miller of Akron. Stanberry was elected as 800 delegates wound up their 10th annual convention and exposition here last night. Other officers chosen included Melvin E. Kimmey of Dayton, first vice president; Raymond D. Sharp of Cincinnati, treasurer; and Paul Kassler of Celina, secretary.

French in New Revolt Against Joint Defense

Laniel Government Tottering on Eve of Bermuda Conference

PARIS (AP) — French parliamentary deputies in a new rebellion against the proposed European army threatened the life of Premier Joseph Laniel's government today, almost on the eve of the Bermuda conference.

The Cabinet in a predawn session authorized Laniel to demand a vote of confidence from the National Assembly. The government hoped, however, the deputies would make this unnecessary by approving a Socialist resolution endorsing the army project in principle but with certain reservations.

Should this fail, the government planned to put forward its own motion on which it must resign if defeated.

The assembly was to resume debate today, on the Socialist resolution and 10 other motions made by various parties and deputies during the week-long foreign policy debate.

Cabinet experts struggled over a draft for the confidence resolution they may put forward. In general, it was slated to pay lip service to the idea of European unity but to cautiously sidestep any support yet for the European army.

TB Christmas Seal Campaign Brings $1,897

First returns from Christmas Seal letters mailed out to residents of Marion County have brought $1,897.40 to the Marion County Tuberculosis and Health Association in the first week of the campaign to raise funds for the association's tuberculosis prevention and control activities.

Although only 1,187 people have sent in their returns, Judge Edward J. Ruzzo, Christmas Seal sale chairman, said he expected public response to be even more generous than in past years. The sale will continue through December.

"The association made it possible for over 7,000 Marion County residents to receive free chest X-rays in 1953, and it is hoped an even greater TB case-finding program can be scheduled for 1954," he stated. "Medical research is discovering ever better means of curing this tragic disease, and we must increase our efforts to find all the people with TB so that they can be treated and cured."

Judge Ruzzo urged every one to send in their contribution as soon as possible if they haven't already done so. If there is anyone who hasn't received their Christmas Seals, they are asked to call 2-0915 or drop a card to P. O. Box 265 and the association will take care of it.

Senator Hits Back in Talk On Radio, TV

Ex-President Placed Politics Above Nation, He Claims in Rebuttal

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy says the Truman administration was "crawling with Communists."

In his formal rebuttal to former President Harry S. Truman, McCarthy charges that Truman—while a U. S. senator and vice presidential candidate—intervened against the dismissal from government service of George Shaw Wheeler, who later deserted to Communism.

McCarthy says that after Truman became president, Wheeler was reinstated, although he had been dismissed as a Communist.

Defines Trumanism

The senator gives this description on what he calls "Trumanism":

"The placing of your political party above the interest of the country, regardless of how much the country is damaged thereby."

Praising the Eisenhower administration's efforts to rid the government service of subversives, he added however:

"Let us glance at a few cases where our (Republicans) batting average is zero—where we struck out."

As an example he cites John Patton Davies, who he says helped deliver China into Communist hands.

The Wisconsin Republican senator addressed a nationwide television and radio audience last night in answer to Truman, who had assailed "McCarthyism' in a TV-radio speech a week ago Monday night in connection with the Harry Dexter White controversy.

Truman was reported asleep in bed at his Independence, Mo., home last night an hour before McCarthy went on the air.

Ike Is Silent

Nor was there any immediate comment from President Eisenhower.

In his reference to the handling of Communists in government, McCarthy said he is somewhat concerned that the Republican party "might also fall victim to the same evil which beset the Democrat (sic) party and did so much toward destroying this nation.'

Speaking of Davies, McCarthy said:

"He was unanimously referred by the McCarran committee to the Justice Department for indictment because he lied under oath about his activities in trying to put Communists and espionage agents in key spots in the Central Intelligence Agency. Why is this man still a high official in our government?"

Davies, a career diplomat who was cleared by the Loyalty Review Board during the Truman administration, recently was questioned by the board again and then returned to Germany, where he is

Probe Pushed In New York By McCarthy

NEW YORK (AP)—New witnesses were on call today in Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's showdown attempt to prove "extremely dangerous espionage" at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

The Wisconsin Republican wound up yesterday's opening session of public hearings with a demand for the appearance today of one Harry Hyman, not further identified.

Hyman's name came up in connection with purported discussions of Communist recruiting and espionage.

McCarthy's charges in connection with Ft. Monmouth grew out of secret hearings last month of his Senate Permanent Investigations subcommittee.

His critics challenged the senator when the Army announced its own investigation had revealed no current espionage at the New Jersey headquarters of the Signal Corps top secret radar development program.

McCarthy then called the public

First One Tonight

2 Union Thanksgiving Services To Be Held Here

Choice of two union Thanksgiving services or of observance in individual churches will be given Marion residents tonight and tomorrow.

Under auspices of the Marion County Ministerial Association, one union service will be tonight at 7:30 at First Church of the Brethren with Rev. F. E. Kline of Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church as speaker, and another will be at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in Wesley Methodist Church. Rev. Mel Martin of Cincinnati, who is holding special services in Marion at Epworth Methodist Church, sponsored by two Baptist congregations, will be heard at the Thursday morning service.

"The Heart of Thanksgiving" will be the sermon theme for the Thursday morning service. Rev. Martin will be introduced by Rev. J. B. Holloway of Trinity Baptist Church. Special music will be by the Wesley Church Choir directed by Merle Lashey and Gene Greer will be at the organ.

At both union services, offerings will go for Church World Service in Korea. Articles of used clothing and shoes will be accepted at these services.

"In view of the appalling need, with half the population of Korea registered as refugees, war sufferers and destitute, it is hoped that there will be a generous response to this appeal for gifts of money and warm clothing, "The Rev. J. Paul Goebel, the ministerial association's Special Days chairman, said.

Thanksgiving Day Masses at St. Mary C tholic Church will be at the 7 a.m., 7:30 and 8:15 tonight.

Living Cost Up Again but Peak Appears Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today living costs edged up a bit in the month ending in mid-October—assuring a million CIO auto workers of a two-cents-an-hour wage increase.

The increase, of two-tenths of one per cent during the month, brought the index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics to another record high for the fifth month in a row. It stood at 115.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average, of 1.1 per cent above a year ago.

Despite the new living cost increase, commissioner Ewan Clague of the bureau said the nation's inflationary period appeared to be at an end. He said that lower food prices are likely in the coming winter months and may bring the over-all living cost levels down from their present peak.

"I think the index will fluctuate within narrow limits," Clague told a news conference. "But the period of inflation appears to be ended."

During the month foods declined slightly but this was more than offset by increases in the cost of housing, clothing, medical care, personal care, recreation and other goods and services.

Guild Members Attend Evangelistic Services

At the special evangelistic service of Calvary EUB Church Tuesday night, the Christian Service Guild was present in a body. Featured music by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. MacMurray of Pennsylvania, the musical evangelists, was a number by the former on the cornet, "The Holy City," and a vocal duet, "Fellowship With Jesus." In addition they played "Life's Railway to Heaven." Prayer was by Mrs. John Ruth.

Each night preceding the services, prayer meetings are held at 7:10. Choir rehearsals are being held for special presentation with the MacMurrays Saturday night of "The Ninety and Nine."

Rev. Clyde R. Wendell, pastor, who is preacher for the series, used for the basis of his message the words of the apostle, Paul, "Examine yourself and see whether you are in the faith." He declared that "It is possibee for us to be Christians in name only. It is easy to examine the other fellow, but it takes real courage to examine ourselves. God's Word is the standard of judgment. We must not be content with anything less than a pure heart."

Hi-Y Organizations Hold Thanksgiving Services

Thanksgiving services for Junior and Senior Hi-Y Clubs were held at the YMCA Monday and Tuesday evenings. Monday night, the Junior Hi-Y Clubs met. The senior group met Tuesday.

Joseph Dupuis was speaker at the Monday night gathering. He spoke on stewardship during Thanksgiving tim in terms of serving both God and the community.

Presiding at the meeting was Larry Henry. Ben Bechtle was the pianist. Jed Middleton gave the call to worship, and Ray Isaly read the hymn titles. Prayers were given by Jed Middleton, Charles Balthaser, and Vaughan Williams.

Tuesday night, the senior Hi-Y Club from Harding High School held its services. Rev. W. L. Stafford of the Wesley Methodist Church was the speaker. He told of his Thanksgiving experiences as a chaplain in the Army Air Force during World War II.

Presiding at the senior meeting was Richard Mull. As at the junior group services piano music was supplied by Ben Bechtle. Joseph Conklin gave the call to worship, and Don Caprino read the responsive reading. Lawrence Clinger led the prayers.

Fourteen young people will take part. They are the winners in local church or school contests. Those competing at Carey will be Barbara Hehr, Ruth Binau and Eileen Corfman, of Upper Sandusky. Virginia Pickett, of Wharton, Flora Jane McNutt, of McCutchenville and Kerry Lee Hall, of Carey. The contestants at Upper Sandusky will be Natalie Jo Coons of Nevada, Patricia Rose, for Marseilles, Alma Gosche and Mary Tooiano, of Carey, Tena Kay Moyer, of Sycamore, Nancy Ellis and Joan Worline, of Upper Sandusky.

Winners of each county contest will receive silver medals, presented by the Ohio Council of Churches, which sponsors this peace education program. Judges have been secured from Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware and Ohio Northern University at Ada.

$20,000 Court Action Is Settled at Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — The $20,000 action for money of Mrs. Edna Mae Sloop of Cleveland, against John Boals, 22, of Crestline, was settled out of court here Tuesday morning, shortly before it was scheduled for trial before a Common Pleas Court jury.

The settlement, terms of which were not announced, was made before the jury was impaneled or witnesses called.

Mrs. Sloop claimed she was injured in a collision between the Sloop and Boals cars in Galion in June, 1950. A $2,500 action for money filed by Mrs. Sloop's husband, Charles, against Boals has been settled, Clerk of Courts G. William Dustman reported.

CAMPAIGN IS SUCCESS

CLEVELAND (AP) — Contributions of $874,335 pushed the 1953 charities campaign of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Cleveland 3.5 per cent over its goal, President Leo R. Kundtz announced today.

Talbott Rules In Air Force Security Case

Radulovich Cleared; May Set Precedent For Similar Actions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officers speculated today over the effect Secretary of the Air Force Talbott's reversal of a reserve officer's security dismissal might have on similar cases under study.

Talbott would say only that "the decision was mine alone."

He authorized this direct quotation for a report some hours after he announced yesterday that he had cleared Lt. Milo J. Radulovich, who had been threatened with discharge because of alleged Communist sympathies of his father and sister.

More Than 100 Cases

In recent months the Air Force alone has been faced with security decisions involving about 100 officers. All have arisen from derogatory information supplied to security officers, mostly from within the Air Force itself.

In some of the cases the officers involved have chosen to accept discharge under honorable conditions. Other cases are still pending.

The other military services are known to have had similar security problems. The Radulovich case has been one of the very few that has come to public attention.

In this case, as in similar ones, the person involved is informed in writing that the military service is considering revoking his commission. He is told the nature of the information lodged against him and given a choice of accepting discharge under honorable conditions or of fighting to stay in the service.

Avoided Controversy

In most cases, the individual has chosen to go along with regulations and keep the matter between himself and the service concerned. There have been cases where an individual has requested and gained a hearing, with no word leaking out to the public.

In the case of Radulovich, the Air Force gave him all the rights provided in the rules. He received written notice of intention to dismiss him. He asked for and was given a hearing before a security board convened by the 10th Air Force at Selfridge Field, Mich. After that hearing he sent a brief to the Air Force personnel council in Washington.

The original security board found he was a doubtful security risk—but did not question his loyalty—and recommended that his commission be recalled. The personnel council, top-ranking adviser to the Air Force secretary on such matters, disagreed with some details but agreed with the conclusion.

Thus, Talbott overruled all of the agencies and advisers provided for him by law in clearing Radulovich.

Probes to Continue

Air Force officers said security investigations would continue when warranted by information received.

"We will have to judge each case on its own merits just as we have been going all along," said one officer who declined to be named. "Of course, it may dampen the enthusiasm of some of our security investigators, but after all, they are following the regulations."

Radulovich's attorney had said his client was accused because his sister reportedly joined in a Communist picket line and his father read a "radical" newspaper.

Talbott, in ruling the 26-year-old officer is not a security risk, said his "association with his sister is not such as to make her activities and beliefs the determining factor in this case."

He added that the record does not support the conclusion that the father had engaged in activities of "such a type as to bear upon the decision in this case."

Rdaulovich, married and the father of two children, now lives at Dexter, Mich., and attends the University of Michigan as a GI student. He served about eight years in the Air Force before going on inactive duty.

President's Hand Forced

McCarthy's Blast Puts Pressure on Ike

WASHINGON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy has not only offered himself as a national political issue, but has contradicted President Eisenhower and is attempting to force Eisenhower's hand in foreign affairs.

The Wisconsin Republican last night combined a television-radio reply to former President Truman's blast at "McCarthyism" with his strongest bid yet for political prominence.

McCarthy was left on the sidelines when the Eisenhower administration through Atty. Gen. Brownell, accused the Truman administration of laxity in ridding the government of Communists.

This was the charge McCarthy had been making for years. But once Brownell made it, it was the Senate's subcommittee on internal security—headed by Sen. Jenner, Indiana Republican—which picked up the ball and ran with it, not McCarthy's Senate Investigations subcommittee.

Last night McCarthy must have disillusioned anyone who thought he would stay in the wings while Brownell's sensational accusations were being examined and investigated.

From the time he took office last January Eisenhower has avoided any public head-on clash with McCarthy—even when the senator tried to block the president's nomination of Charles E. Bohlen as ambassador to Moscow.

If Eisenhower hoped a collision with the senator could be avoided indefinitely, he has learned differently, for McCarthy last night criticized not only the Democrats but Eisenhower's administration as well.

The contradiction of Eisenhower—

In a recent news conference Eisenhower expressed a hope that Communists-in-government would not be an issue in the 1954 congressional elections. Last night McCarthy, in recalling this statement, said:

"The raw, harsh, unpleasant fact is that communism is an issue and will be an issue in 1954."

As a rallying point and national issue himself—

McCarthy said: "If the American people agree with Truman that what he calls McCarthyism is bad, that it is wrong to dig out and expose traitors, they have a chance to get rid of me as chairman of the investigating committee by defeating any Republican up for reelection."

Criticism of the administration and attempt to force Eisenhower's hand—

McCarthy called on the people to threaten with defeat at the polls their elected officials—this would include Eisenhower and members of both parties in Congress—if they didn't stop aid for any ally "shipping sinews of war to the enemy (Red China)."

He slammed Truman and the Democrats, as was usual and to be expected, for not getting Communists out of the government faster. And he said in this field the Republicans had done "infinitely" better. He pointed to 1,456 "security risks" fired under Eisenhower.

But then he said he wanted to look at where the Republican administration's batting average was what he called "zero."

He pointed to John Patton Davies—diplomat still in the government after McCarthy's long efforts to get him out.

Then he turned to "failure of my party to liquidate the foulest bankruptcy of the Democrat administration." He cited a Chinese Communist announcement, after the truce-signing, that American fliers shot down over Manchuria would not be released.

At the same time, he said, American allies, getting American aid, are trading with the Chinese Communists. How to force the Red Chinese to give up the fliers? His solution: shut off trade with them.

McCarthy said:

"You can say to those whom you have elected to man the watchtowers of this nation, Democrat and Republican alike; 'you will be taken down from those watchtowers if you continue to take money from my paycheck today and send it to any of those allies who are in turn shipping the sinews of war to the Communist enemy.'"

McCarthy's 30 minutes on television and radio was not sufficient time for him to deliver the full speech he had prepared, but he said he stood behind the full test.

New Cloth Printing Process Proves Sensational!

ANOTHER FIRST FOR FRANKS!

Cloth Print Draperies

Block tone printing as the name implies, simulates hand blocking at an astonishing degree. Colors are deep and opaque, and the attractive off-register effects of typical hand screening can be seen. The features of the draperies are as follows: they are 45 inches wide by 90 inches long, with a 25 inch pinch pleated washable heading, blind stitched side and bottom hems and are completely washable.

Impervious to sun and fading, proven tests under the fadeometer for 80 hrs. as compared to the average 40 hours tests proved this point. Washed in 160 degree water proved no change in color after five washings.

They come in a heavy rayon and acetate slubbed faille. An acetate filling stabilizes the draperies and reduces the shrinkage to 2 percent. They have been registered with the United States Patent Office.

Each of the patterns contains up to 12 glowing colors, absolutely washable and sun resistant. Workmanship is of the finest from the fully sewn pinch-pleated headings to the generous blind-stitched hems.

Area Churches Plan Special Union Thanksgiving Services

Churches in surrounding counties have scheduled special Thanksgiving Day services for tonight, and schools, in most cases, closed for a four-day vacation this afternoon.

Upper Sandusky's annual interdenominatinal union Thanksgiving service, sponsored by the Ministerial Association, will be held at John Stewart Methodist Church at 7:30 tonight. Theme of the service will be "True Thanksgiving Is Ours Through Gratitude and Worship." Rev. W. A. Tabbert, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, will preach on the subject, "A Summons to Thanksgiving." The senior choir of the Methodist Church, directed by Charles McClellan and accompanied by Charles S. McClain, guest organist, will sing the anthem, "O How Plentiful Is Thy Goodness." Rev. Stanley H. McGilliard, pastor of the Methodist Church, will conduct the service of worship.

A number of Crestline churches will observe the holiday with special services at 7:30 tonight. At First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Gerald L. Palmer will conduct a Thanksgiving service and at the same time Rev. A. J. Laird will have charge of a praise service at the Church of the Nazarene. First English Lutheran Church will have the topic, "Be Thankful to God," given by Rev. S. A. Metzger. Prayer and praise service at the Baptist Church will be conducted by Rev. Charles Moore. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church will have a service conducted by Rev. H. Karl Diemer. A social hour will follow the Thanksgiving service at First Methodist Church, where Rev. C. L. Yoder will have charge. Rev. W. L. Margard will conduct the service at Calvary Evangelical and Reformed Church.

First Presbyterian Church at Bucyrus will be the scene of that city's annual union Thanksgiving service tonight. Rev. Willis S. Webb, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak on "The Heritage of Thanksgiving." A special service will be held Thanksgiving Day morning at the First Church of the Christ Scientist.

Rev. George Weaver, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon at the union service at Kenton's United Presbyterian Church tonight at 7:30.

The First Methodist Church at Galion will be host for this year's union Thanksgiving service there at 7:30 tonight.

Tulsa Boy Mends Ways After One Day in Prison

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A Tulsa boy, sentenced to one day in Oklahoma's state prison two years ago for armed robbery, has begun his third year as a law-abiding citizen.

Jim Glen Kimbrell, now 21, was ordered by District Judge W. Lee Johnson to tour the prison, remain there overnight and think about living behind the stone walls.

The boy's report impressed the judge, who then placed him on five years probation.

Two Trusties Steal State Car, Flee Prison in Utah

UTAH STATE PRISON, Utah (AP)—When Utah State Prison officials allowed two trusties outside the main prison last night to repair a plow in the institution's mechanical shop, they apparently forget about an automobile in the shop for repairs.

It was not long before a broadcast alerted police throughout the state to be on the lookout for a car bearing a big state seal on each side and carrying two men wearing blue prison denims.

Sycamore Couple Feted At Anniversary Dinner

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gregg who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, were given a reception by the members of the Plankton Church Sunday night.

The committee planning the affair were Mrs. Perle Dunlap, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Susie Dunlap, Mrs. Mary Rapp and Mrs. Ethel Garvin. Preceding the potluck supper, grace was said by Charles Oder. Seated at the table of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Gregg, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, John Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell and family, Miss Eva Burks, Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz, Charles Oder, A. D. Holt, Ida Oder, Ida Huddle, Mrs. Willis Greg; and Truman Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz who have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary are the only couple living who belonged to the famous 50-Year Club of Plankton. To be elegible for this club a couple has to have celebrated 50 years of married life. Mr. Oder and Mr. Holt were also members but their wives are now deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Oder were best man and bridesmaid for the wedding of Mrs. Gregg's parents. Mr. Holt was a former teacher of Mr. Gregg.

The group presented the honored couple with a gold colored wool blanket and they also received several gifts from individuals.

For the program with Mrs. Susie Dunlap in charge, several songs were sung by the group.

Student Newspaper Published at Baker Junior High School

The first number of the Baker Bulletin, student publication of the Junior High School, was issued recently.

Editors of the paper are Nancy Boger, Dixie Geddis, Jack Kerr, and Dick Williams. Their assistants are Hannah Morgan, Nancy Stumbo, Dave DeWolfe, Don Wright, Cara Minshall, Mary Augenstein, Jim Lightner, Pete Bailey, Ramona Smith, and Connie Morrison. Reporters are Peggy Ballenger, Sandra Leech, Sue Smiley, Judy Wilson, Pam Busick, John Eyster, Dick Penry, Becky Roecker, Linda Lee Weston, Barry Brandt, Marilyn Davis, Howard Klehm, Linda McCurdy, James Snider and Sue Smith. Miss Una Ackley, Miss Barbara Axe, and Mrs. Mozelle Shoemaker serve as advisers to the publication staff.

Selection of a name for the student publication was one of the first tasks undertaken by the Baker Student Council. Home room representatives on the council first solicited members of their respective home rooms for suggestions. In all, 36 proposed names were submitted. After careful deliberation and subsequent balloting, this number was reduced to three names which were submitted to the entire student body for final selection. This selection was made by ballot in home room meetings.

The first issue of the Baker Bulletin featured news of the school's various organiations, a resume of the football season climaxed by the championship of the Marion Junior High School League, numerous feature articles, and editorials.

District Attorney Brings News to Father on Jury

WORCESTER, Mass (AP)—There was some concern when Dist. Atty. Alfred B. Cenedella halted a grand jury session yesterday and said: "I now have a very serious matter to take up with you!"

All leaned forward expectantly. "Juror Harry B. Deal has just become the father of a boy—9 pounds 8 ounces," Cenedella announced.

'Whew!" said Beal.

The district attorney handed him two cigars and two aspirin tablets. The jury went back to business.

Oklahoma Police Hunt 20 Sticks of Dynamite

Twenty sticks, each weighing five pounds, were taken. One was exploded in a wheat field, bringing a flood of calls from jittery citizens. Police blame prankish youngsters.

New Booking Desk Has Jail 'Regular' Confused

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A new booking desk resembling the one at Charleston's city jail has been installed as part of the face-lifting job at Kanawha County Jail.

One of the county jail's regulars, a 68-year-old man charged with drunkenness, was booked yesterday. On his way to a cell, the man mumbled to himself:

Lausche Goes To Capital on Dual Mission

Conference on Atomic Energy, Ohio Drought Relief Is Arranged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche was in Washington today on a dual mission.

He scheduled a meeting with chairman Lewis Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission for 1 p. m. to urge location of a new peacetime atomic plant in Ohio.

He scheduled a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson for 2:30 p. m. to talk over "the problems of the farmers in the drought stricken counties in Ohio."

Plugs for Ohio

The Ohio governor said his talk with Strauss would concern "the existing atomic energy plant (in Pike County) and all its incidental problems . . . ." And he said he would convey to Strauss "the wishes of the people of Ohio to have the contemplated atomic reactor plant which is to be built in the near future located in Ohio."

AEC officials have said the new plant would be used to produce atomic materials for peacetime application.

While Lausche is in Washington, another conference on the drought situation was scheduled in Columbus to decide whether or not the president should be asked to declare 11 Ohio counties disaster areas.

Seek Farm Relief

The Ohio governor arranged the conference for Clarence Gehrig, state director of the Federal Farm and Home Administration; Howard Foust, state director of agriculture; James Wells of the natural resources department and Ralph Locher, the governor's secretary.

Lausche commented yesterday after talking with Foust and A. W. Marion, director of the natural resources department: "I do know that the farmers in that (11 county) area have been hit heavily by the scarcity of water. In many places they are buying water by the tankload. Due to the lack of pasture land they have used the feed of next winter for maintaining their livestock through this drought period.

Could Get Cheaper Feed

"Counties similarly situated in Kentucky have been declared, by the federal government, as disaster areas entitled to federal help."

Owners of drought - stricken farms in a disaster area can buy livestock feed from the Commodity Credit Corp. at reduced prices.

Gov. Lausche flew to Washington yesterday after leaving a hospital where he was treated for a back sprain.

He planned to leave Washington tonight for Cleveland. He will spend Thanksgiving there, returning to Columbus Friday.

Salvation Army Reports Holiday War Cry Issue

Senior Captain Mary Nisiewicz of the Marion Corps of the Salvation Army announces that the Christmas War Cry will be available for the coming two weeks.

A uniformed worker with "The Salvation Army" marked on the band of the cap and bonnet, and bearing the proper credentials signed by the Captain, will call for envelopes. No trombones are used by the Army for the distribution of the War Cry, official Army publication, she states.

The captain asks that any inquiries be made to her at 2-1531.

First Jap Commercial Airliner Crosses Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With the Japanese merchant flag emblazoned on the fuselage, the first commercial Japanese airliner to cross the Pacific landed here yesterday. The big Douglas DC6B carried 57 crewmen and passengers from Tokyo. It was a trial flight, preparatory to the start in early February of twice-weekly service between Tokyo and San Francisco by Japan Air Lines.

LAUSCHE LENDS HAND

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP) — Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche, en route to Washington for conferences with federal officials, took the time yesterday to assist the family of a fellow passenger who died of a heart ailment. Lausche ordered an Ohio Highway Patrol car to take the dead man's family to a Wheeling hotel. The victim was Delwin Victor Hubbs, 22, of Salina, Kan., en route to Washington with his wife, Vivian; his mother and brother.

Revival Scheduled

REV. JOHN DORSEY of Chillicothe will be the evangelist for revival services at First Wesleyan Methodist Church on Silver St. beginning tonight. Special music and singing will be by members of the congregation. The public services will be each night at 7:30 through Dec. 6, the pastor, Rev. John C. Woodward, announced.

Postoffice District Manager Selected For Area in Ohio

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today the appointment of Joseph M. Risley as a district manager under the Postoffice Department's new decentralization program.

J. M. RISLEY

With offices in Columbus, his territory will cover Marion and some 30 other counties in the central and southeastern state.

Mr. Risley, 59 years of age and a native of Logan, O., has been a career postal employe for 39 years and a member of the Post Office Inspection Service.

He will be one of a group of nine district managers in the tri-state area of Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio will report to regional headquarters in Cincinnati under the new plan. He was sworn in as district manager by the Postmaster General in ceremonies Tuesday at Taft Auditorium, Cincinnati, before a meeting of approximately 3,000 postmasters from the three state area.

Counties in Mr. Risley's area, in additon to Marion, are Athens, Belmont, Coshocton, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Gallia, Guernsey, Harrison, Hocking, Jackson, Jefferson, Knox, Lawrence, Licking, Madison, Meigs, Monroe, Morgan, Morrow, Muskingum, Noble, Perry, Pickaway, Washington.

Boy Playing 'Wild West' Uses Pair of Real Rifles

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP)—An 8-year-old boy, playing "Wild West" with two .22-caliber rifles taken from his father's gun cabinet, peppered a house and automobile with bullets yesterday. No one was hurt.

Police, called by neighbors, found the boy taking cover behind a window frame like a bad man of old. They turned him over to his parents for punishment.

Price Supports Needed, Ohio Farmers Say

Poll by Farm Bureau Federation Shows 72 Per Cent Seek Subsidy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Although they are strongly in favor of a government price support program, Ohio farmers are divided on what it should be.

A poll of 14,310 farmers by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation shows 7 per cent voting for government price supports. Of these, 36 per cent said the government should continue to guarantee 90 per cent of parity on basic commodities.

In a similar poll last May only 17 per cent of Ohio farmers favored the 90 per cent parity.

Another 13 per cent would have the government guarantee 100 per cent of parity on all farm products both storable and perishable. And 22 per cent favor government support only at a level which would prevent disaster, the federation reported.

Farmers approve the Soil Conservation Service by a strong margin, federation president Everett F. Rittenour said.

Rittenour said 83 per cent polled said the service had been helpful to them.

On Ohio credit facilities, there were 76 per cent who said these facilities now meet their needs.

Increased foreign trade is endorsed by 61 per cent of Ohio farmers polled and 71 per cent asked for agreements to gradually lessen, trade restrictions between nations.

It has been the policy of the Farm Bureau that the United States should continue to aid friendly nations by supplying them with agricultural surpluses, Rittenour said.

He added that 83 per cent of Ohio farmers agree with this stand. Only 13 per cent, however, are willing to continue to give food away. More than half said they would be willing to accept local currencies for food shipped abroad.

Most of the farmers polled agreed that increased marketing research would substantially reduce surpluses.

Fourth Grade at Vernon Gives Thanksgiving Play

Miss Gladys Edelman's fourth grade class at Vernon School presented a play, "Around the First Thanksgiving Table," to parents of the pupils Tuesday. The play was written by the pupils, who also did research on the subject.

Each member of the class had a part in the production. The idea of the play was originated after discussion of the Pilgrims in social science class aroused interest as to the conversation used by the early settlers.

Decorations of the room were in keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit. Refreshments were served the parents following the play.

In the Line of Duty

Even more shocking than bureaucratic coddling of employes suspected of disloyalty to the United States is the possibility that the FBI may be punished for doing its duty.

When J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, told the Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee that his bureau had compiled information on Harry Dexter White which had been disregarded by executive authority, some New Dealers and Fair Dealers saw red — not Moscow red but political red.

They realized that Mr. Hoover, whose directorship of the FBI goes back to 1924, knows the whole sad story of subversion. The vigor of his statement about the work his organization has been doing left no room for doubt that he will defend its integrity against any hint of laxity.

His statement left no room for doubt, either, that the FBI intends to keep on being objective in performance of its duty, which is concerned wholly with the security of the United States, not with the security of either political party.

As things stand now, Mr. Hoover is interested in a new law which would release some of the FBI's wire-tap information for courtroom use in espionage cases.

This, too, will bring down wrath on him and his bureau. The wire-tap evidence in question may involve people less interested in the security of the United States than in the security of themselves and their friends in politics.

The FBI and its director are going to need all the support they have earned since 1924. There are people in government and people newly out of government who may try to punish them for doing their duty.

No Limit in Sight

Between now and the beginning of basketball season, the main purpose of advanced education, which is the cultivation of the mind, will be somewhat easier to keep in sight.

It is significant of something important in the academic works that high schools now are being notified that 11 colleges and universities next fall will accept outstanding students who have finished their sophomore year.

There are nearly a thousand of these students now enrolled.

This is a large-scale continuation of the work done originally in the University of Chicago by Robert M. Hutchins. Dr. Hutchins is equipped with more latitude and more wherewithal as associate director of The Ford Foundation, which he joined in 1951.

The theory behind the academic speedup is simple.

Ability to absorb education is related not to age but to mental capacity. Students with extraordinary capacity should not be held back.

There is no limit in sight to the amount of information which can be absorbed and coordinated in a first-class mind. Most students scarcely scratch the surface of their mental capacity. Lazy, disinterested and incompetent students never should hold back or slow down the pace of learning for good students.

America's prime asset is intelligence. Anything which promises to increase its net total is worth trying. Hundreds of boys and girls who have been able to go from the second year of high school into the first year of college are proof that advanced education has been held back unnecessarily by a requirement which can be safely waived for the benefit of outstanding students.

Labor vs. Unionism

A unanimous vote for Taft-Hartley Ace repeal was the CIO convention's response last week to Secretary of Labor Mitchell's appeal for a reasonable attitude.

Apparently, Mr. Mitchell still must learn what is obvious to everybody except a few people who cherish the illusion that labor unions are run by men who got where they are by being reasonable.

If the secretary of labor noted what the CIO delegates were told by their general counsel, Arthur J. Goldbert, before their unanimous vote to wipe the Taft-Hartley Act off the books, he must have given special attention to this statement:

"The Taft-Hartley Act represents the point of view of those who do not believe in labor unions."

There is no possibility of being reasonable with people who feel this way about a law to protect American wage earners against the possibility of abuse by union monopolists.

No spokesman for a government trying to be fairly representative of all the people should be offering "deals" to men who want all or nothing — who are 100 per cent opposed to everything they cannot dominate.

The government of the United States must protect the rights of all its citizens. An overwhelming majority of them are out of patience with the persistent effort to swap the people's rights for a kindlier feeling toward the Republican party by a few dozen union bosses.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell should concentrate on protecting the rights of Americans who work for a living and waste no more time proposing appeasement to union irreconcilables.

Dirty Work Afoot

By David Lawrence

Attempt Made To Disturb U.S.-Canadian Relations

Theoretically the Canadian government is right in refusing to let Igor Gouzenko, former code clerk in the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, testify before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. But there are many ways to accomplish the same objective without violating the customary proprieties.

Thus, no investigating committee can be conceded the right to go into Canada, any more than the United States would feel obliged to let a foreign commission seek out citizens inside our own territory for testimony.

In a situation, however, like the "cold war" and, in fact, during a hot war, measures of cooperation between allied governments are adopted which make possible the desired exchange of information.

A EXAMPLE of this kind of unity was afforded within the last few years when Klaus Fuchs was arrested in Britain in connection with the transmission of secrets of the atom bomb to the Communists.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation was anxious to interrogate Fuchs to get some clues to persons inside the United States who had up to that time not been detected, but who were believed to have had a part in the spy-ring operation.

At first, the British government at the top-policy level declined to give the FBI any information or to let its agents interrogate Fuchs.

After several months of discussion back and forth through diplomatic channels, the questioning by American intelligence agents was permitted and information was obtained that enabled the Department of Justice to catch the Rosenbergs, who were still in the United States, and convict them of espionage.

So, when the objective is the running down of Communist spies in the interest of a nation's security, there are usually ways to pool information and carry on the common fight against persons seeking to injure any ally.

SOMETHING of the same kind of situation has arisen now with respect to Gouzenko.

It has been reported from Ottawa that he has told all he knew. But not until a witness is examined on minute details can it be determined whether he has presented new information.

It is important, of course, that such testimony be taken in executive session, and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee has been meticulous about maintaining silence on testimony given in secret sessions when secrecy is essential.

It might be suggested that the FBI do the interrogating, but, under rules established heretofore, information given to the FBI is not available in raw form to any congressional committees and, in any form, only in specific cases.

The FBI, like the intelligence agencies of other countries, gets its information from a variety of sources in foreign lands.

THE OTHER DAY reference was made, for example, to a Canadian source which had inquired in 1946 about the future selection of Harry Dexter White to head up the International Monetary Fund.

Dispatches from Ottawa in the last few days stated that the document inquiring about this case couldn't be found.

Probably it will not be, because intelligence data are frequently not written down by officials but given orally to security representatives.

The Canadian government has doubtless secured much information that way from intelligence sources in the United States government.

It is not feasible, of course, for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee to give over its function of gathering information for Congress to any bureau in the executive branch of the government.

Sometimes it is not recognized abroad — and indeed many people overlook the fact in this country — that Congress, with its committees, constitutes an independent an coordinate branch of the government.

THE SUPREME COURT of the United States has upheld the right of Congress to investigate almost anything upon which it seeks information, either for the purposes of adopting or repealing legislation or even for the purpose of recommending constitutional amendments.

The problem is a delicate one because naturally the Canadian government would not wish to withhold any information that could be of value in helping the American people, through a campaign of education undertaken by Congress, to alert the nation to the ways and means by which the Communist apparatus operates.

There is every reason why the Senate Internal Security Committee wishes to respect the attitude of the Canadian government in conforming to custom, and it is a matter of great concern here that mischief-makers in this country have tried to link the committee's request for Gouzenko's testimony to some alleged "smear" of Foreign Secretary Pearson.

Plainly somebody is at work trying to disturb Canadian - American relations, and it isn't the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Distributing the Bird

By TRUMAN TWILL

No one is asking for any advice on how to carve a turkey. But that is only because everybody's afraid to make a clean breast of his, not the turkey's, ignorance.

It's too bad in a way because there have been historic improvements in turkey handling since the pilgrims first gave us the bird.

Distributing the protein division of the harvest's bounty these days is no longer like cutting up a half-done football stuffed with wet bread. The women have learned to cook a turkey so it practically distributes itself.

All a household head needs is 15 minutes alone with the turkey carcass in a quiet kitchen before the consumers are ready to stab one another in the wrist. This is the secret—just 15 minutes for fowl play.

Only the most rudimentary equipment is required—a pair of reasonably clean canvas gloves, a child's sand shovel and a pair of pruning shears.

Take the turkey out of the oven. Make sure it is done by yanking a leg. If the leg comes off like a horror scene in a TV mystery, your turkey is ready for Freddy.

This will have been made possible in some cases by the use of aluminum foil, which now makes it feasible for even a bride to cook a turkey without tears. This is the improvement in turkey handling since the Pilgrims—the first improvement of any importance.

Thanks to the foil, the turkey now is no longer a distributive risk. With the reasonable clean gloves, its removable parts can be snatched off like a buffet dinner off a sideboard, or an undivided surplus off a financial statement.

With the legs and wings taken care of with a couple twists of the wrists, everything else can be prodded, pried and shoved loose with the pruning shears which also will be useful for severing stubborn ligaments and bones that grew in the wrong places.

White meat, for example, can be divided into tufts instead of slices. This is quicker. It is easier. The tufts also add piquancy to the appearance of the turkey when laid out for public inspection.

Until women finally learned how to cook turkeys, carving was a kind of ceremonial rite. Few men ever learned how to do it gracefully. The few men who could have done it creditably were surgeons, and they demurred, claiming it would have violated their oath of Hippocrates the hypocrites.

But now it's easy.

A few minutes behind closed doors and the job's done. An old pair of furnace gloves will do. If pruning shears are not obtainable, tin snips can be substituted.

The sand shovel is to recover remnants that skid off on the floor. It is preferable to a snow shovel because most kitchens lack space for a long handle.

This once despised job no longer needs to be a nightmare. Anyone can distribute a turkey now and remain thankful while doing it.

Last Shall Be First

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Missouri Farm Bureau Federation here, alarmed at the lack of parking facilities in this small but busy state capitol, leased a downtown parking area for the free use of its employes.

Lots of outfits have done things like that. But the MFBF put in a new twist. The federation figured the lowest paid employe would have the least money to spend for commercial parking. So it gave the folks at the bottom of the payroll first crack at the free parking.

Tammany Reforms Just Window Dressing

By Raymond Moley

After the election three weeks ago of Robert F. Wagner Jr. as mayor of New York City, a number of gestures were made to indicate that there was truly to be a new dispensation in the City Hall.

Robert Moses was retained in his multiple offices, including that of park commissioner. That move was taken for granted. To reject this man who has served brilliantly under three mayors would have been political madness.

A couple of other fair selections were then made.

FINALLY, with much fanfare, Wagner designated Dr. Luther Gulick to a job which vaguely suggested that of a managing director under the mayor. Dr. Gulick has been a research specialist in municipal government for 30 - odd years.

He recently has finished a survey of New York's city government which extended over many months and which, when gathered in book form, provides a formidable compendium of civic improvement.

This appointment has been hailed as a distinct triumph for the forces of expert, honest city government. The news has gone over the nation that at long last a Tammany mayor has seen the light.

It is also suggested by some enthusiasts that this is the first step toward a nonpartisan, expert manager form of government for sinful old New York.

SUCH VISIONS of reform are "such stuff as dreams are made of." There is no more disposition on the part of the dominant machine in New York to reform than there was in the lush, larcenous days of Croker. The difference is in method and personnel.

The exploitation for government for private gain goes on. The nature and methods of grafting change. Instead of the wicked traction magnets of old, there are the tough masters of labor and the barons of gambling and racketeering.

The wages of sin are drawn from quite different sources, but they are paid, and the politicians in the know are just as prosperous.

The belief that the setting up of Gulick in an office means anything new is, as a former Columbia University colleague of the new administrator says, "the triumph of hope over experience" Gulick has no real powers under the City Charter.

HIS OFFICE is purely advisory and mildly ceremonial. Perhaps, when other attractions are too great to resist, the mayor will let Gulick sit with the waxworks at civic luncheons. But every commissioner will, of course, resent any interference with his preserve. That is the inevitable ways of bureaucracy. Robert Moses himself bitterly attacked the survey which Gulick conducted, calling it the work of visionaries and novices. The whole thing is an almost meaning less ge te asr uby most meaningless gesture by a thoroughly hard-bitten machine intended to beguile the innocent.

When the people of New York want good government, they will elect a good mayor. They had the opportunity this year.

THE REPUBLICAN candidate, Harold Riegelman, would have been as able an administrator as was Fiorello LaGuardia, with none of the Little Flower's demogoguery.

He was rejected by a big majority. Instead, the people of New York accepted a candidate whose obligations to the labor boss, Mike Quill, were so great that he declined to say whether he would or would not permit the police to be unionized.

Good government comes when there is a strong, city-wide organization able to carry elections and enforce justice and honesty.

Cincinnati has that in its two-party system, with a strong Republican party opposed by the Charter party.

Cleveland had it in the days of Tom Johnson, when the Democratic organization was made into what was in essence a political machine with imagination and integrity.

New York has nothing of that sort. There is no prevailing sentiment which can or will support good government.

From Our Readers

To The Star:

After reading about the kidnap-slayers in The Star Nov. 20, with reference to the method to be used to snuff out their lives, I could not help but consider the psychological effect on many readers. With crime and juvenile delinquency on the increase, as admitted by those who have charge of statistics, it does not help the situation any by giving so much publicity to the depravity of some specimens of humanity.

This aspect of the situation is bad enough when crime and its offspring is used as the theme for many broadcasts that may be tuned in from otherwise fairly clean atmosphere, some books, stories in various periodicals and many shows. But, shocking indeed is the concluding sentence in an editorial in the same paper. "They also have forfeited the right to be remembered as human beings."

How could such a statement be made after their photos and generous front page space is devoted to them? Truly it amounts to a recognition and a historical remembrance of degradation, immorality and man's inhumanity to man. Should this copy of The Star be sealed in a cornerstone or time capsule for the consideration of posterity, it is to be hoped the social soil will have undergone a revolutionary cleansing, to prevent the growth of corrupt and criminal beings.

We are not learning much from the best minds that have been speaking and writing during the past several generations, indicating the cause and solution to the increasing problems posed by the growth of our socio-economic system. Their guidance would mean considerable to our safety and well being.

New York accuses the management of a huge insurance company of nepotism, and has us sitting up late reading the fine print in our policy to see if we're covered against that.

Hollywood is reported to be swinging away from stereoscopic effects, and it's a kind of cute in an ironic way for 3-D to look so round and fail so flat.

More and more Russian big shots are dropping out of sight. If La Rosa thinks Godfrey was a stickler for humility, he ought to try working for Malenkov.

Is it quite wise to emphasie how costly juvenile delinquency is? Remember that in America nothing makes a thing more popular than being told we can't afford it.

Captain Charles R. Van Houten enlisted for service in the Civil War with Co. B, 121st Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry and received his commission as captain at Atlanta, Ga. During the Atlanta campaign in 1864 the 121st saw action almost daily. Some of the chief battles were Kenesaw Mountain, Peach Tree Creek, Jonesboro and the engagements around Atlanta. The regiment accompanied Sherman in the "March to the Sea."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The Picture Lingers On

It's a week since J. Edgar Hoover made his sensational appearance in the matter of what was done, and what must be done, to bar the door to Kremlin agents, but the picture lingers.

In a situation in which nearly everybody had to take some account of political considerations (although the charge is absurd that the whole subject of spies in government is politically motivated) here was a blazing, indignant, fact-facing, straight-talking record - citing public servant who could say, "In your hat!" to all politicians, call a spade a spade and paint a picture so tragic and alarming that the mood of wisecracks, midway comedy routines, name-calling and the jaunty explanations was blasted completely.

Here was no touch of the dim memory, the casual approach, the ghost - written speech, fancy footwork or artful dodging. Here was no fear of political consequences, no pussyfooting no aroma of huddles and conferences, no dirty names, no low punches.

The muddled public has been wondering for a long time why, of all the characters on the stage, there was not one in either camp whose height, weight and reach was so commanding that he could and would step into the picture and provide the necessary drama without invective, word-mincing or regard for caution signals.

The banter and laugh lines were out.

To this American there was nothing funny, trivial or easily brushed off in a spy - ring crisis. J. Edgar Hoover made it plain that he was trapping for keeps, not playing with decoy ducks.

We have seen no more stirring moments on the Broadway stage, in the movies or on the video screen in years. All the top G-man had to do, if he wanted the easy way out, was to take the stand, say he had given the evidence to the White House and tell the people what happned beyond that was none of his business.

Many expected him to take this course. But, pulling no punches, he pictured the danger to America fully, emphasized that Russia had begun infiltrating, or trying to infiltrate government, decades ago, related warning after warnig from his office in the Harry Dexter White case, denied he had been a party to keeping spies in government office to trap them further and charged that the Truman routine actually hampered the FBI.

We had seen caution and something like fear in the attitudes of all others up to this point. Not even Mr. Brownell or President Eisenhower had appeared to be completely unapprehensive.

There was no hemming or hawing, no "shouldn't we be a little more careful about this?" mood in J. Edgar's approach. He knew that what his FBI had been trailing all these years weren't cute little red herrings.

In the FBI, gooseflesh comes hard. The spirit of timidity and compromise doesn't flourish in that school. The boys have faced too many sawed-off shotguns and shoulder holsters in the tight spots.

Politics? Phooey! Might not make the right impression with the voters? Stow it, Buster! This was the hour for slamming political angles, smart tactics and yellow traffic lights up against the wall and letting 'em have it, which J. Edgar Hoover did.

It was like a breath of fresh air. There was not a single "as nearly as I can recall," "I don't remember the name," or, "I will have to go over my files for that" in his entire statement.

That's something of a record on any level in Washington or anywhee else. How about a citation for the best color TV in black and white?

Evangelist Likes Church Work Best

Mel Martin Returns to Religion After TV Success

By JOHN ROBSON

To switch from the second highest paying job on a Cincinnati television station to evangelical work is quite a change. Mel Martin—now Rev. Martin, the man who made the change—said Monday he felt the spiritual recompense from turning men's souls back to God was worth the sacrifice.

Martin is currently in Marion, for Baptist Evangelistic services.

He made the switch in April after hearing a speech by evangelist Billy Graham in Cincinnati. He later talked to Graham and from that talk, decided his true work was in the religious field.

THE YOUNG MAN of 38 was formerly a Baptist evangelist in the central and southwest parts of the country. In 1950, he left the ministerial field and entered television and radio.

He gave as his reason for the move the fact that there was an illness in his family, making it necessary to settle down in one location.

In 1951, he took over as a summer replacement for Kate Smith on the NBC network television. Later he began another show, "Straw Hat Matinee." This also was a network program.

The following year, "Breakfast Party" was begun. This show was Martin's own creation, and was the first early morning telecast on NBC. It consisted of giving about 100 women their breakfasts each morning, then interviewing them.

MARTIN IS NOT the evangelists real name. His name was Dibble, but he changed to Martin for professional reasons.

While he was a boy in Georgia, he began his evangelistic work early, at the age of six. At that age, he was on the pulpit with his father and mother, both of whom were in Gospel work before their deaths. He made short speeches and sang religious songs to help his parents in their work.

He went to military chool in Virginia, and then to Wheaton College near Chicago, where he studied Bible and theological courses. Both he and his wife, Ruth, studied music at the Clarke Conservatory in Philadelphia, Pa.

WHEN HE HEARD Graham speak in April, Martin said he felt the old urge to return to the work of preaching the Bible to people. He said he also realized how unhappy he had been in the entertainment world.

Martin hastened to add he did not have any grudge against the television and radio business, but felt he ha to leave because it was not the life for him.

In his missionary work, Martin tries to make a strong appeal to young persons. He said he feels they need a re-establishment of their faith in God and in their thinking on regular attendance of church.

Since his resignation from the entertainment world, Martin has preached to crowds in St. Louis, Mo., Houston, Tex., Rolla, Mo., Miami, Fla., Lexington and Louisville, Ky., Detroit, Mich., Buffalo, N .Y., Philadelphia, Pa., and Dayton, O.

AFTER HE leaves Marion, he plans to go to Sunbury. He will return to this area late in January. He will conduct a one-week session from Jan. 24-31 at Mt. Gilead.

On his first night in Marion, persons had to be turned away from the Trinity Baptist Church

In addition to his evening sermons he broadcasts every morning at 8:15 over radio station WMRN. HE said he uses radio at every city on his trips around the country.

Martin is accompanied on his work by his wife and their three-year-old son, Steve.

Crusade for Christ Services Moved to Epworth Church

Due to overflow crowds which have gathered at Trinity Baptist Church this week to hear Rev. Mel Martin in "Crusade for Christ," services, sponsored jointly by Trinity and Fite Memorial Baptist Churches, the services, beginning tonight, will be transferred to the auditorium of Epworth Methodist Church.

Each night since Rev. Martin opened his services in Marion last Sunday night, persons have been turned away from Trinity Church because of lack of seating capacity.

Rev. Martin will conclude the campaign on Sunday night. Services are at 7:30 each night.

Tonight, Rev. Martin will tell the story of his experience during two and one-half years in television, mentioning a number of well known performers with whom he has worked, such as Martin and Lewis, Jack Carson, Dave Garroway, John Barrymore Jr., Rock Hudson and Dennis Day. He also will speak of his decision to retire from the entertainment field to minister to people.

Yule Party Slated By Cub Scout Pack

Plans for a Christmas party in December were announced by Mrs. Gerald Shults, chairman of the pack committee, when Cub Scout Pack 2 of Oakland Heights School met recently.

Advancement and attendance awards were presented to Richard Williams, Thomas Miller, Gene Chase, Roger Burden, Barry Ferrin, Richard Leonard, Clinton Pennington; Keith McFann and Donald Shults.

A talent program included Leslie Walker playing a trumpet solo and Bruce Wertheirmer playing an accordion solo. A skit with a Thanksgiving theme was given by Den 1 of which Mrs. Arthur Miley is den mother.

Procter Ferrin, assistant cubmaster, conducted the meeting which opened with the flag ceremony conducted by Den 4 of which Mrs. Richard Leonard is den mother. Mrs. Miley was introduced as a new den mother and a new member, Wayne Smith, was taken into the pack. Gordon Phillians was transferred from the Olney Ave. Cub Scouts. The program concluded with The Lord's Prayer.

The Wright brothers' first plane was damaged after its fourth flight and never flew again.

Capital U. Professor Talks to Prospect PTA

Professor Earl C. Metz of the department of education at Capital University, Columbus, was a guest speaker at a meeting of the Prospect PTA Thursday night. His subject was "School Needs." The talk was followed by a question and answer period.

Rev. Billy Evans, pastor of the Baptist Church conducted the devotions on the topic, "Obedience." Mrs. Evans sang "On a Rugged Hill."

A committee was named by the president, Mrs. Robert Emery, to meet with Clyde Forry, superintendent, to decide how the proceeds of the recent Fall Festival should be used. The sum of $384.98 was netted.

Supt. Forry talked on school children insurance. Mrs. Nora Herr, Mrs. Ruby Hedges and Mrs. Francis Phelps were in charge of a recreation program by the school children. The December program will be given by pupils of the grades.

LaRue Post To Assist In Polio Center Drive

Plans for an evening of entertainment to raise funds for the Magnetic Springs polio fund were discussed Monday night at a meeting of the LaRue American Legion, Phillippi-Clement Post No. 101.

Commander John Snyder appointed a committee composed of Ed Mallett, Richard Ford, Gene McMahan and R. W. Dunkin to make arrangements for the program. The enterainment is tentatively scheduled for sometime in January.

A discussion on Chrisitmas boxes was also held.

Members of the post received the thanks of the Roland McElheney family. The post helped the family make hay and pick corn

A NUPTIAL high mass at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary Catholic Church united in marriage Miss Ellen Hogan of Springfield, Mo., and Nelson G. Irvin of Marion. Rev. Robert E. Gately, assistant pastor, officiated for the ceremony and was the celebrant of the mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward P. Hogan of Springfield, Mo., and the late Mr. Hogan. Mr. Nelson is the son of Mrs. N. G. Irvin of N. Greenwood St. and the late Mr. Irvin.

Attending the couple were Mrs. John J. Kelly, sister of the bride, and Robert Irvin of Columbus, brother of the bridegroom.

For her wedding Miss Hogan chose a costume suit in a mauve shade and wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. Kelly's suit was in a Persian Blue shade and her flowers were yellow rosebuds.

A breakfast for the immediate families and close friends was at Hotel Harding where the tables were decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons and pink and blue chrysanthemums.

Later the couple left by plane for Niagara Falls and Canada and Saturday plan to attend the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia. Before returning to Marion they will visit Mr. Irvin's son, James Irvin, who is enrolled at West Point Military Academy.

The bride was graduated from St. Joseph's Academy in Monet, Mo., and Webster College, Webster Grove, Mo. She has been a continuity writer at a radio station in Springfield. Mr. Irvin, a graduate of St. Mary Parochial High School is associated with the Ohio Edison Co. and is an assistant coach at St. Mary school.

62nd Anniversary To Be Celebrated By W. C. Andersons

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Anderson of 38 E. Mark St. will observe their 62nd wedding anniversary Thanksgiving Day. In observance of the event, a family dinner will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were married on Nov. 26, 1891, by a Rev. Miller of Prospect. She is the former Myrtle Penry, a native of Prospect. Mr. Anderson, a native of Waldo, is a retired restaurant owner.

The celebrants have three children, Mrs. William Osborne of Owasso, Mich., Mrs. Ben Fees, Hyattsville, Md., and Paul Anderson of Davids St., this city. Another son, Gerald, is deceased. They also have 12 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

ADOPTS CHARTER SYSTEM

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The Village Council of Kettering has passed an ordinance providing for appointment of a village manager and the election of a charter commision at the May Primary next year. The council set the salary of its chief executive at $11,000 a year.

It is estimated that the islands of the earth include about 4,000,000 square miles.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

National holidays are usually set aside to commemorate great historic events or to recall the lives of heroic individuals.

SOKOLSKY

Thanksgiving Day is different. It is unrelated to any particular historic event or to any great personality. It is an individualistic holiday, providing an opportunity for every person to thank God for the blessings that have come to him. It is a personal holiday and used to be deeply religious.

I am thankful that in 1917, at the beginning of my career, I was sent to Russia. Often I have thought of what might have been my story had this not happened.

SO MANY of those whom I knew in my boyhood moved from one liberal atmosphere to another until some of them landed in the Communist conspiracy.

Who knows what can happen in those youthful years when one is so sure that he has the answers to all problems; when he is so strong that he can remake the world — all by himself out of his own self-assurance?

Therefore, I am thankful that I was permitted to witness those strange days between July, 1917 and March, 1918, when a nation sought liberty and was reduced to slavery. It was an unforgettable experience.

The brutality of the tiny minority, the Bolsheviks, made me aware of the chasm between profession and performance, between the proclamation of an ideal and the earthiness of reality.

I AM THANKFUL that this experience brought me back to the God of my fathers. For I had wandered in college in the Hegleian materialism which had already become the climate of American intellectualism.

We already knew that God was a myth. But the reaction to Marxism, in its Leninist version in the midst of the Russian Revolution, could only be, if one did not submit to its disciplines, the assurance that there must be a Divine Intelligence, a power outside ourselves that makes for righteousnes a God.

From this strength alone can come reasoning resistance to Bolshevism.

I am thankful that having witnessed socialism at work, I could not believe that any system is preferable to a free competitive economy in which each individual, at his risk, forms the pattern of his life.

NO MATTER how ideally worded in the books, socialism reduces man to serfdom in the sense that he becomes bound to the decisions and will of the state; he is a creature of police power.

When the government owns the means of production and distribution, the individual becomes a thing, a statistical figure. He is lost in the morass of bureaucracy.

I am thankful that early in life, in the atmosphere of a reign of terror, when men fought for the possession of an egg and women sold themselves for a bar of chocolate, it came to me that the natural law, the revealed law of God to man, proclaimed by my ancestors in the Bible, offering to man pity, compassion, charity, love as ideals of life, was a superior pattern to the Darwinian struggle for existence and the Marxian theory of unending class struggle.

I AM THANKFUL for the long years I spent among the kindly Chinese, who broadened my outlook on life and proved that while the human race contains as many different kinds of people as there are varieties of roses, all human beings are much the same in their elementary nature.

Before I arrived in Harbin in 1918, the only Chinese I had known were sugar-cane merchants in New York's Chinatown, chop suey restaurant waiters, laundrymen, and three or four students at Columbia University.

For 13 years, I lived among the Chinese in their own country and I came to know them with rare intimacy — and to love them.

MOST OF ALL, I am thankful that I am a citizen of no mean country; that in this country of my birth, I am permitted to write and speak, wisely or foolishly, in freedom.

I am thankful that I can worship my God without fear and that no government controls my life or threatens me with reprisals against my children.

On Thanksgiving Day, I shall bow my head before the gracious God whose shadow fell between me and possible grevous errors that could have tortured my life and brought misery to my kin.

There is so much to be thankful for.

Greyhound Bus Strike Held Off

Union Delays Action Pending Talks Dec. 4

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A strike which threatened to tie up Pennsylvania Greyhound busses in 13 states and the District of Columbia has been postponed while union and company representatives make another effort to reach an agreement.

The strike scheduled for 12:01 a.m. today was called off yesterday by William P. Arthur of the AFL Amalgamated Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Operators' Union.

A company official said a conference had been scheduled for Dec. 4.

HEADS OHIO MANUFACTURERS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — C. H. Murray, vice president of the Armco Steel Corp., Middletown, yesterday for the third consecutive year was elected to a one-year term as president of the Ohio Manufacturers Assn. Other officers elected include vice presidents Ephraim H. Brown of Mansfield, John H. McNerney of Toledo, R. H. Miner of Akron, Malcolm W. Thompson of East Liverpool and John E. Galvin of Lima. Among the trustees re-elected were J. C. Shouvlin of Springfield and W. Robert Timken of Canton.

DIES IN FOSTORIA

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP) — Alva R. Weaks, 72, former city councilman and vice mayor, died of a heart ailment yesterday. He had operated a downtown grocery store here from 1905 until his retirement last year.

Treasure Tale Exaggerated, Floridan Says

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — A man who claimed he found buried treasure under the Suwanne River is now talking about 30 coins of little value instead of thousands worth a fabulous half million dollars or more.

William F. Sneed Jr., a coin collector and hotel operator, said last night the story of a treasure find he told 24 hours earlier in Jacksonville was "misinterpreted."

"I had around 15 doubloons and 15 gold pieces," Sneed said here. He said they did not have too much value but they were found in the vicinity of the Suwannee.

The Florida Times - Union at Jacksonville said its story was accurately written by a reporter who quoted Sneed as saying he found 4,500 Spanish gold doubloons and 3,500 silver pieces of eight worth over $600,000.

A radio-television interviewer at Jacksonville said Sneed also told substantially the same story as that which appeared in the Times-Union. Tommy Tucker of WMBR-TV said Sneed told him he found about 8,000 coins in a barnacle-crusted chest under the Suwannee River and they were worth about $300,000.

Both newspaper and radio interviewers said Sneed told them he found the treasure last Saturday under several feet of water near the mouth of the Suwannee.

Last night Sneed, however, said the coins were found about three weeks ago near the Suwannee.

CHARITY BALL IS SATURDAY

BUCYRUS — Proceeds from the third annual charity ball of the Bucyrus Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will be used to purchase sidewalk lights for Bucyrus City Hospital. The dance will be held Saturday night at the Moose Home with music being furnished by Duke Heiby and his orchestra.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Apparently a union chief doesn't automatically drop dead on the nation's water front because he's honest. Or because he has ignored the pressure of intimate friends of Albert Anastasia, the invulnerable executioner, of Murder, Inc.'s, goriest longshoremen's union business agent to kill some one as a "personal favor," if the official wanted to keep his job.

RIESEL

Although honesty may not be the healthiest policy on the dark docks, it hasn't always proven lethal to bypass offers from longshoremen labor officials who had a good thing in smuggling bananas, armed airplanes, sulphur or nickel.

-:-

THERE WAS big money, too, in charging merchants up to $45,000 for permission to unload their own cargoes of perishable lemons or tulip bulbs.

Apparently, there is strong conviction in some circles that a man has been found sufficiently old fashioned as to attempt to live on his union salary alone

This man is the Capt. Bill Bradley who succeeded old King Ryan as head of the orphaned International Longshoremen's Association.

The murderous days of the "Ding-Dong" Bells, the "Cockeye" Dunns and the "Squint" Sheridans may be over—for there are leaders of the AFL, the CIO and John Lewis' Mine Workers who believe Bradley is okay. They have conferred with him recently. So they must think him honest.

CAPT. BRADLEY, who leads some 5,000 eastern tugboat men, and always will be followed by some 10,000 others who work afloat in the nation's harbors, positively has offers from sections of these three powerful labor organizations.

He can bring in his 15,000 followers. But he must leave the racketeers outside.

The most recent offer to Capt. Bradley was made to him personally at a secret meeting in a lush hotel more frequented by the black tie than the black hole set.

This bid came from the CIO's National Maritime Union.

Present at the dinner session on the night of Monday, Nov. 9, in a small suite taken for the evening by National Maritime Union leader Joe Curran, were Big Joe himself; his second in command, the brilliant strategist Hedley Stone; their erudite counsel. Herman Cooper; Capt. Bradley; his attorney, an indefatigable and incorruptible lawyer by name of George Brenner, and two others there as technical aides.

THIS LEISURELY, four hour dinner was held at the Hampshire House, in a swank part of New York, on the south side of Central Park.

This is far uptown from the hotels the waterfront unions usually frequent. All this, to throw us demon newsmen off their trail. I stumbled on the session.

And I should report that the NMU leaders have positively refused to admit that there was such a gathering.

Which is fair enough. But they met. They ate. They offered to help Bradley finance his drive against the mobs. They asked him to join CIO. They said they would take any worker into the CIO who earns his living afloat.

This was before Bradley's succession to the Longshoremen's Union presidency. But it was made clear that the rotund captain was welcome whether or not he replaced Joe Ryan.

Now, I have covered the National Maritime Union leadership, even in the days when it meant running through a knife-wielding mob which had seized its building and imprisoned its anti-Communist officials.

I KNOW that none of its officers would touch a crooked penny.

I know that Big Joe Curran would break the back of any man who sold out this sailors union he and little Hedley Stone ripped from the Comintern's hands.

Their invitation to Capt. Bradley therefore is evidence to me that there is an honest man on the waterfront.

To the public it makes no difference whether Bradley goes back to the AFL, or into the CIO Or into the Mine workers (which have a tugboat division). Or stays independent.

THE PUBLIC wants the mobs driven from the nation's waterfront so its food bills and its imports won't cost them 350 million dollars more each year in special terror taxes to mobsters.

It seems logical, then, to ask why the leaders of labor don't get together now to give Bradley a hand, instead of competing for him.

He has just dispatched letters to 400 longshoremen's locals from Puerto Rico to New Orleans and up to Canada.

He told them to re-examine their by-laws, set up bookkeeping systems, hold monthly meetings and issue financial reports.

Looks like a good beginning. And it looks like he'll need help, too.

Superstitions

By Laura Hobson

In all the wonderful wisecracking hullaballoo about the 13th century character whom I shall hereafter always think of as "Comrade Robin Hood," one small sentence sticks in my mind more than any other.

HOBSON

It's been largely neglected, this sentence

It was uttered three full days after the story broke, in the followup statements of Mrs. Thomas J. White, in Indianapolis, when she denied advocating a ban on Robin Hood but stuck by her guns about the Communist line in it and Communist policy to push it with our young minds.

"Because I'm trying to get Communist writers out of textbooks," she declared, "my name is mud—evidently I'm drawing blood or they wouldn't make such an issue of it."

THAT'S QUITE a sentence. And to me the key word in it is "THEY"

Who is that "THEY"?

The editorial writers in our leading liberal and conservative papers?

The amused or outraged citizens of Nottingham county, England, where Robin Hood and Friar Tuck and the other merrie outlaws roamed over 700 years ago?

Perhaps Nottingham's Lord High Sheriff, Col. Sir Joseph Nall?

THE LADY on the State Textbook Commission of Indiana "drew blood" from all those and more. Are they her "THEY"?

If not, just whom did she have in mind?

WE ALL KNOW what's meant by "THEY" in a phrase like "They'll lie under oath any old time." In the context, we mean Communists and nobody but nobody else. And surely Mrs. Thomas J. White knows that, being on state commissions and all.

And in the context of Communist propaganda, do you think Mrs White meant active anti-Communists like our leading newspapers when she said "THEY"?

I didn't think so at the time, still don't, and therefore I feel that the Robin Hood episode is not just a tempest in a textbook teapot, but an example of something a lot bigger.

If I'm against poverty, and I hear that the Communist line denounces poverty, am I supposed to change, quick like a bunny, and be for poverty?

IF I'M FOR peace and I hear that the Communist line is for peace, am I supposed to start yelling for more and bloodier wars?

If racial and religious prejudice make me sick, am I supposed to shut my mouth and destroy my typewriter forever just because the party line talks against it—even when the news from Russia and her satellites gives increasing evidence of anti-semitism growing there?

That's what I mean by "a lot bigger." We can fight Communism and fight poverty too; we can fight Communism and believe that peace is better than war; we can fight Communism and speak up against bigotry and prejudice.

But we can't do all that freely and strongly unless we stop throwing that "THEY" around at everybody who talks up or back.

1 Person Hurt In Seven City Auto Accidents

Man's Car Strikes Pole; No Mishaps Reported in County

One person was injured in one of seven traffic accidents reported today by Marion police. Meanwhile, for the second day in a row, the state highway patrol and Marion County Sheriff's department reported no accidents in the county.

Joseph Reynolds, listed by police as living near Prospect, received minor injuries when he lost control of his car on S. Prospect St. at 3:34 p.m. yesterday and crashed into an electric pole at Prospect and Pearl Sts.

Taken to City Hospital Reynolds was treated and released. He gave his address to hospital attendants as Beulah Heights, Ky. Police reported when they arrived at the accident scene he was already gone and they were unable to locate him.

Reynold's car was badly damaged and the electric pole, owned by the Ohio Edison Co. was splintered, police said.

In a similar accident on W. Fairground St. at N. Prospect St. at 8:47 p.m. last night, James L. Brown, 22, of near Marion escaped injury when his car smashed into a utility pole. Brown told police he was driving west on W. Fairground St. when another unidentified car turned onto W. Fairground from N. Prospect St. made a turn and forced him to pull to the right to avoid a collision. In doing so, Brown's car crashed into the utility poled on the north side of the street. Police said his car was badly damaged.

A taxicab driven by George Kay Iall, 42, of 251 Ucapher Ave. was slightly damaged when struck by an unidentified car in the 100 block on N. Main St. at 7:23 p.m. yesterday. Iall reported the accident at the police station and said the other car did not stop.

Another taxicab driven by Colby L. Hill, 41, of 143 Plymouth St. was not damaged in a mishap at W. Farming and N. Prospect Sts. at 4:09 p.m. yesterday involving a car driven by Robert H. Lehner, 35, of 215 Blaine Ave. Police reported Lehner's car was slightly damaged.

A car owned by Howard Christman of 655 E. Farming St. parked on Park Blvd. near W. Center St. was damaged when struck by a truck driven by Frank E. Wylie, 27, of 625 N. State St. at 5:06 p.m. yesterday. There was also slight damage reported to the right rear fender of the truck.

The left side of a car parked on N. Main St. near Fairground St. and owned by Andrew J. Evans of 669½ N. Main St. was damaged when struck by a truck driven by Bernard D. Allen, 31, of Monroe, Mich. at 5 p.m. yesterday. There was no damage to the truck.

Only other accident involved an unidentified car and a Coca Cola Co. truck, the driver of which was not known by police. It occurred in the second east-west alley north yesterday afternoon. Police said and N. Prospect Sts. sometime of W. Center St. between N. Main the automobile struck the truck while driving through the alley and failed to stop after the accident. The truck was parked while the driver was making deliveries, police said. The truck was not damaged and it was not known if there was any damage to the car, they added.

HIT BY CAR, KILLED

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 75-year-old tailor, Paul Barth, was struck and killed by a car today as he was walking to work.

the Chief Executive is not in town.

On the way to Augusta yesterday for his fourth visit since he was elected, the President stopped briefly at Ft. Benning, Ga., to take aboard his daughter-in-law, Barbara Eisenhower, and his grandchildren—David, 5, Barbara Anne, 4, and Susan, 2.

The President's son John, an Army major, remained at Benning to have Thanksgiving Day dinner with his troops tomorrow. He commands the 1st Battalion of the 3rd Infantry Division.

After the dinner, John plans to come to Augusta to spend the rest of the weekend with the family and to take on his father at golf.

hearings and said he would let the nation decide for itself whether he was exaggerating.

One witness yesterday was Joseph Levitsky. He worked for the Signal Corps in Philadelphia during the early years of the war. Then he obtained a transfer to the federal telecommunications laboratory in Nutley, N.J., where he remained until last February.

Levitsky testified he knew the executed atom spy, Julius Rosenberg, and used his name as a reference in getting the job at Nutley. However, the witness would not say whether he was a Communist or whether he had a hand in any way in Rosenberg's espionage activities.

McCarthy asked Levitsky at one point:

"After Rosenberg was arrested for espionage, did you state to some people, 'Yes, and there, but for the grace of God, go I?' "

Levitsky declined to answer.

Rosenberg died in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison last June with his wife, Ethel, for conspiracy to turn A-bomb secrets over to Russia.

Earlier, yesterday, a sworn deposition was put into the record from David Greenglass, brother of Mrs. Rosenberg and chief witness against the pair at their trial. He is serving 15 years in Lewisburg, Pa., federal penitentiary for admitted theft of atom secrets.

In the deposition, Greenglass said he learned that Rosenberg's spy ring stole secrets from the Signal Corps and transmitted them to Russia.

"As far as I know," Greenglass' statement continued, "these operations never stopped and could very possibly be continuing to this very day."

Marion Police Arrest Four in City Traffic

Four motorists were stopped on various traffic charges during the last 24 hours by city police. Three were arrested and the fourth was issued a citation to appear in Municipal Court Saturday.

Those arrested were Albert L. Russell, 58, of Richwood, reckless operation, posted bond to appear Saturday; Charles T. Lee, 75, of near Bowling Green, no mud flaps on his truck, fined $15 and costs in Municipal Court yesterday; and Robert W. Cleaver, 51, of Lakewood, reckless driving, posted bond to appear today. The citation was issued to Harry H. Potts, 26, of 203½ Bellevue Ave., charged with speeding.

GOP MEETING SET

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Plans for the 1954 state and congressional campaigns will be discussed here Dec. 1 at a meeting of the Republican State Centra land Executive Committee. The GOP Policy Committee scheduled the session at a meeting yesterday.

AMUSEMENT TAX REPEALED

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—City councilmen repealed a three per cent city amusement tax last night by a 10-to-1 vote. The tax on theater tickets, boxing and special events, imposed about 51 years ago, raised about $60,000 annually.

Galion To Obtain Water Storage Site

Special to T heStar

GALION — City Council, at an adjourned meeting, Tuesday night, passed an emergency ordinance directing the public service director to purchase the tract of land in south Galion to be used for city water supply and storage.

The ordinance repealed the resolution of last weeks's regular session to go ahead with measures to appropriate the land and condemn it. This was a decision felt necessary last week at which time all efforts to negotiate with one of the heirs of the property had failed. Meanwhile, Mrs. Agnes Gillingham, representing the estate of the late Michael Powers, has agreed to sign off to make the way clear for sale of the property to the city.

The ordinance, passed by suspending the rules, provides for the purchase of the land, in five parcels, at $225 per acre, with $50 added to each parcel to allow for court costs and other expenses in transferring the deeds.

In her agreement to sell her share of the estate, Mrs. Gillingham requested that the name of Powers be given the reservoir site, and that her home, a small building, be moved to a small triangle of ground at the edge of the land, and that city utilities be available.

By suspending the rules, Council also passed the ordinance to pay Emery, Marker and Emery engineering firm of Toledo for services in connection with the proposed electric light plant improvement program in the amount of $27,254.02. Although this program was defeated by vote of Galion citizens early this month, the engineering firm had worked on the project in setting up plans.

Another ordinance, passed as an emergency, fixes the salary of the chief of police at $370 per month, with bond at $1,000. This will be enforced Jan. 1, 1954. It was explained by councilmen that this is not a raise (present salary is $330. monthly), but that the additional amount was added to the chief's salary to make up for loss in his income when the recent law took away his share with the mayor of cost charges on municipal court cases. At an earlier meeting, Council provided for a raise for the mayor.

After the reading of a resolution adopted by Scarbrough Post, American Legion, that Council pass an ordinance prohibiting storage of un-used refrigerators in places where children may get into them, a motion was made to have the city solicitor prepare legislation for reading at the next meeting of Council. The Legion post resolution provided that the refrigerators should be fixed so they could not be opened by children.

Delaware County Boys Hurt in Hunting Mishap

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — Okey Jordan Jr., 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Okey Jordan of Leonardsburg, and Edward Keltner, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Keltner of Ashley, were injured Monday afternoon at the conclusion of the day's hunting when a 12-gauge shotgun accidentally discharged.

The 13-year-old Jordan boy was in "fairly good" condition at Jane M. Case Hospital here from a wound in his left forearm suffered when the Keltner boy accidentally struck the trigger of Jordan's gun. The end of Keltner's left thumb was torn off by the blast. He was released after treatment of the thumb at the hospital.

The pair and several other boys had been hunting in the fields near the Jordan home. Jordan said that his gun had not been working properly and that Keltner had started to take the gun apart as the boys stood around him. He did not know the gun was cocked, he said, and instead of striking the lever to discharge the shell, he accidentally struck the trigger.

3 MISSING AFTER BLAST

BISHOPTON, Scotland (AP)—Three workmen were reported missing after an explosion early today blasted an underground nitroglycerine plant at the royal ordnance factory here. At least three other men were injured.

Man Arrested In Liquor Raid, Charged $300

One of three persons arrested in a raid by state liquor agents and city police on the Moose Lodge clubrooms on N. Main St. Aug. 9 was fined $300 and costs at a hearing in Marion Municipal Court Tuesday.

Donald E. Bassler, 23, of 474 Silver St. was charged with selling intoxicating beverages illegally and had pleaded not guilty to the charge. However, at the hearing yesterday, Judge W. Dexter Hazen found him guilty and levied the fine.

Judge Hazen indicated today this was in the form of a test case and that Paul J. Simpson and John Watters, attorneys for the three defendants, said they would appeal the fine against Bassler.

Hearings for the other two defendants, Joseph Patrick McGary of 178 Patten St., charged with being the keeper of a place where intoxicating beverages are sold illegally and Reba Dale Darby, of 416 S. Prospect St., charged with selling intoxicating beverages illegally, will be delayed pending the ruling of the appeals court, Judge Hazen said. McGary has posted a $300 bond and Miss Darby a $100 bond pending the hearings of their cases.

Arter Case Slated To Be Heard Here By Van Wert Judge

Common Pleas Court Judge Eugene R. McNeill of Van Wert has been assigned to hear a jury trial in Marion Municipal Court Friday on charges of resisting arrest filed against J. C. A. Arter, 54, of 264 Bellefontaine Ave. by Patrolman Homer Watson of the city police department.

Assignment of Judge McNeill was made by Ohio Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt on the request of Marion County Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith.

The assignment of the non-resident judge grew out of an affidavit of prejudice filed against Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen by Arter, who is acting as his own counsel in the case.

Judge Hazen removed himself from hearing the case and sent the affidavit of prejudice over to Judge Smith for his consideration.

Arter was charged with resisting arrest on Sept. 17. The jury trial Friday is set for 10 a.m.

Gouzenko

in the International Monetary Fund.

Sought by Jenner

The two requests to question Gouzenko were filed by Jenner's subcommittee, which is seeking to find out whether the ex-Russian has any new evidence bearing on Soviet espionage in the United States. Canadian authorities rejected the first request, asserting the former embassy clerk had nothing new to say. Published reports that Gouzenko himself said he might be able to help U. S. investigators prompted the subcommittee to submit a second formal request.

Pearson asserted that Canada has given the United States every scrap of information disclosed by Gouzenko in six or seven years of detailed questioning. "This ought to be enough to get out of him what he knows," the foreign secretary added.

Although Dulles expressed doubt at his news conference that the White case and its ramifications have had any measurable effect on U. S. relations with other countries, the Gouzenko affair has sparked bitter words on both sides of the U. S.-Canadian border.

Canadian Papers Bitter

Canadian newspapers charged that U. S. investigators were threatening to name Pearson as one of several Canadians accused of supplying information to a wartime spy ring in Washington. Subcommittee Counsel Robert Morris denied the charge but the Toronto Star declared in an editorial yesterday:

"The witch - hunting blabbermouths of the United States, a noisy minority in that country, are apparently after Lester Pearson now. Pearson . . . has suddenly been presented to the public as a Red sympathizer—a spy perhaps. It is just about the most absurd smear that anyone could imagine."

The Toronto Telegram accused Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, of "manipulating the strings" of what it called the "smear campaign" against Pearson.

In Chicago, Col. McCormick declined to comment on the Telegram's editorial, but the Tribune wrote editorially that Pearson "and his followers in the pinko set" are trying "to turn the facts inside out . . . Just how bad and dangerous the Pearson pinko set may prove to be is something that Americans do not know, but the more the matter is agitated, the more it will come to life."

Pearson termed that editorial "completely false and misleadleading."

Dulles praised Pearson as a strong and vigorous opponent of communism.

Non-Operating Rail Unions OK Strike in Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than a million non-operating rail workers are giving "overwhelming" approval to a strike vote on the nation's railroads, a union official said today.

George Leighty, president of the Railroad Telegraphers Union and chairman of the 15-union group, said that with "at least two-thirds of the ballots in more than 98 per cent of the votes favor strike action."

The unions have served demands on the carriers for longer vacations, more holidays, Sunday work premiums, health and welfare benefits and unlimited free transportation for all rail workers and their families.

The final count of the strike ballots will be made on Dec. 1. Leighty said the unions could strike any time thereafter but "no strike will be authorized in my opinion as long as the National Mediation Board is actively handling the case."

Mediation Board efforts to settle the dispute are in recess now until Nov. 30, when they will resume in Chicago.

"Communists, directed by the U. S. S. R., are continuously and constantly trying to undermine and overthrow our government in an undeclared war but they shall not succeed."

Reds Drop Interviews

The Communists for the ninth straight day made no effort to interview the more than 20,000 Chinese and Korean war prisoners who have refused to return to Red rule.

Observers said the Reds apparently have given up all explanations, at least for the time being.

The U.N. Command, meanwhile, continued work on ground rules before announcing when it will start trying to woo home 22 Americans, 1 Briton and 328 South Koreans who have refused repatriation.

The South Korean government stepped up its attacks today on Indian neutrality and issued a statement declaring India never would be allowed to attend the peace conference except as a supporter "of the Communist cause."

Government spokesman Karl Hong Kee accused India of unneutral acts and added without explanations:

"Unless India is restrained from further unneutral acts, this nation will have to consult its interests and take action that appears to be appropriate."

Former Ohioan Faces Florida Court Hearing

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Prosecutor John D. Sears Jr., and Deputy Sheriff Floyd Smith were back in Bucyrus today after a plane trip to Florida in an unsuccessful effort to return a former Ohioan, wanted here for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Prosecutor Sears said he had been misinformed last week by a Florida sheriff, who told him there would be no hearing at Deland for C. L. Laisy, who was indicted in May, 1952, by a grand jury here. When the prosecutor arrived in Florida, he was informed that Laisy, a former Wellington, O., farmer, was free on bond and would be given a hearing in Florida next Monday.

Extradition papers for Laisy's return here already have been signed by governors of Ohio and Florida.

Laisy is accused of obtaining a $14,000 loan from the Bucyrus City Bank by presenting a false financial statement.

Motion for New Hearing Overruled at Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Common Pleas Judge John C. Carroll has overruled a motion for a new trial in the $1,500 action for money of Otto Brunetti of Galion, against Gale Wenner Jr., of Bucyrus.

Motion for the new trial had been filed by Brunetti. A directed verdict in favor of Wenner was returned here Nov. 5 by a jury after Brunetti admitted the money he loaned Wenner was used to refurnish and equip the Penn Supper Club here, formerly operated by Wenner.

The supper club has been closed since last spring when Mayor Frank P. Sitler and Police Chief Arthur L. Stuckert issued a ban on all types of gambling.

Wenner contended he had borrowed only $1,500 from Brunetti and had repaid the entire amount plus $100. Brunetti said he loaned Wenner $3,000 of which $1,500 was repaid. The directed verdict was ordered after the evidence showed that the money was used in furtherance of a gambling enterprise.

5 Drivers Charged By Ohio Patrolmen

Five motorists were arrested Tuesday by members of the state highway patrol from the Marion post. Of those, two were fined, two posted bond for appearance in court, and the other was issued a citation to appear in Municipal Court.

Rose Wonsetler of Youngstown was fined $5 and costs by Mayor Don Healea of Cardington. She was charged with passing on a yellow line. Glenn W. Underwood, 34, of Miamisburg was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Healea. He also was charged with passing on a yellow line.

Norman F. Noe, 22, of Waldo posted bond for appearance in Municipal Court Monday. He will answer a charge of excessive speed. Glenn L. Mattix, 28, of Cardington also posted bond for appearance Friday. He was charged with excessive speed.

Arland J. Haber, 39, of Vermilion was cited to appear today to answer a charge of failing to obey a stop sign.

Marion Rotary Members Hear OSU Professor

Dr. James Pollard, director of the school of journalism at Ohio State University, was the main speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday at Hotel Harding. Topic of his talk was "The Hardest Job in the World."

It dealt with American presidents from Washington to Eisenhower, and gave statistics concerning average age, life span, and work involved in the job of being president. Dr. Pollard said presidents have never reached their full life expectancy because of the work involved in the job.

Criticism of the presideets makes the job even more difficult. Dr. Pollard said if candidates knew the many factors involved in the job, no one would take on the task of being president. He added the president of the United States must sign his name about 600 times each day.

Dr. Pollard has been associated with Ohio State since 1920. He was born in Chambersburg, Pa., and holds a doctor's degree from the university. From 1923 until 1933, he served as director of the university's news bureau. He joined Ohio State's journalism staff in 1932.

He has also had experience on several newspapers, including the Canton Repository, Scioto Gazette in Chillicothe, the Associated Press, Ohio State Journal, and Columbus Dispatch.

He is also an author of several books ad articles. His publication of "The Presidents and the Press," earned him the Distinguished Service Award in 1947 from Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

Dr. Pollard was introduced by program chairman, Merle Hamilton. Guest at the meeting was Dean G. Roberts. School reporter was Charles Mitchell.

Public Thanksgiving Day service of First Church of Christ, Scientist, will be at 11 a.m. Other churches will emphasize the Thanksgiving theme in regular mid-week services tonight or Thursday night.

Refugee Will Join Faculty at Cornell

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—A Polish refugee who survived long years of hardship and residence in a dozen countries soon will begin a new life, convinced that the good men do live on.

Stanley Leja is joining the teaching staff at Cornell University. For the opportunity, he credits a friendship established more than 15 years ago during anti-Semtic riots in Poland.

Leja was kind to a fellow mathematics student, Marek Kac, during those riots. Soon afterwards, however, Kac came to the United States and Leja lost track of him.

Remaining in Poland, Leja married. When the Communists invaded the country, he and his wife were deported to Siberia and suffred many hardships before making a flight to freedom in the United States.

One day while working as a loader in a local milling company, he heard the name of his old friend mentioned. He immediately wrote to him.

Kac, now famous as head of Cornell's math department and consultant in government atomic research, remembered that kindness back in Poland and invited Leja to join him at Cornell as an assistant professor.

Marion Lions Hear Address By Rev. Martin

Rev. Mel Martin of Cincinnati, a former radio and television star and now an evangelist, was guest speaker at the Marion Lions Club weekly luncheon meeting Monday at Hotel Harding.

Rev. Martin is conducting "Crusade For Christ" services in Marion this week under sponsorship of Trinity and Fite Memorial Baptist Churches.

In his talk, Rev. Martin told of some of his experiences in television and of seeing TV for the first time at the New York World's Fair. He said that the real beginning of TV was with the discovery of the coaxial cable, and expressed the belief that TV has made the greatest impression on the people of this country since the invention of the Model T Ford.

Rev. Martin said he believes color TV is not in the immediate future. He said that life offers a great challenge of the good things that God put here yet to be discovered by man.

Rev. Martin was introduced by Don Kay, program chairman for the day.

Guests included Paul Stietz of Toledo, C. J. Krominski of Cleveland, John M. Haberman of Green Camp, H. C. Batten and Rev. J. B. Holloway, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, both of Marion.

Religious Services Planned for Youths

College students, including a Youth for Christ leader from London, England, will take part in the Marion Youth for Christ rally Saturday night at Emmanuel Baptist Church here.

Colin Clark, who is attending Cedarville Baptist College in Ohio, will be the speaker, and others from the school included on the program will be Miss Gail Smith of Savannah, O., pianist, and Howard Shumate of Marion, accordionist. Accompanying them will be Rev. James Jason of Savannah, who will give a testimony. Rev. Wallace Ellis of Union Baptist Church at West Jackson will be song leader. Rev. C. E. Hershey, host pastor, is director of the Marion Youth for Christ movement.

Mr. Clark, one of the founders of Uxbridge Youth for Christ in London, has worked the last three years in youth organizations including Christian Endeavor, Covenanters, and Youth for Christ. Last year, he attended the World Congress of Youth for Christ at Belfast, Ire., where he met Rev. Jason and decided to come to this country to continue his education. On completion of his studies here, he plans to return to England on the British Youth for Christ staff for evangelistic work both in London and on the continent.

McCarthy

an adviser to the U. S. high commissioner. He had been assailed by McCarthy before.

Takes GOP To Task

McCarthy also took the Republican administration to task because there has been no accounting of 900 Americans who are known to have been taken prisoner in the Korean War and who never returned. He said the Eisenhower administration is not responsible for the situation, but is responsible for its proper handling.

McCarthy, declaring his fight against communism in government to be an issue in the 1954 election campaign, said:

"The raw, harsh, unpleasant fact is that communism is an issue and will be an issue in 1954.

"It would not be an issue between our two great political parties if they were united in fighting communism. They are not so united today. Truman's diatribe against those who expose Communists is the best proof of that."

Looks to Elections

Looking to the 1954 Senate and House elections, McCarthy said:

"If the American people agree with Truman that what he calls 'McCarthyism' is bad, that it is wrong to dig out and expose traitors, they have a chance to get rid of me as chairman of the investigating committee next fall by defeating any Republican up for election."

McCarthy added that if the people "believe as I do that treason, dishonesty and stupidity should be exposed wherever and whenever found, then their answer is to keep the Republicans in power so we may continue to clean out the Augean Stables."

President Eisenhower told a news conference last week that he hoped the problem of Communists in government would be resolved in time so that it would not be an issue next year.

500 Expected

Lutheran Young People To Convene Here Friday

Approximately 500 young people from 200 congregations of the American Lutheran Church in the Ohio District will be in Marion for the twenty-second annual three-day convention of the Luther Leagues, Ohio District, of the denomination beginning Friday. Emanuel Lutheran Church here will be the host church, and members will entertain the delegations in their homes. Besides from Ohio, there will be representatives from Luther Leagues in Indiana and Kentucky which are included in the Ohio District.

Both district leaders and a national church officials will be heard on the program, and social highlight of the meeting will be a banquet Saturday night at Harding High School. The guests will visit the new YMCA here also, and will be taken on a tour of the new high school, both set for Saturday. Those attending will be high school age youth.

REGISTRATION will begin Friday noon, and official opening of the convention will follow at 3 with Rev. M. E. Hollensen, host pastor, in charge. Richard Fowler of Cleveland, president of the district Luther League, will introduce the keynote speaker, Rev. John Auer of St. John's Lutheran Church at Greenville, O. His subject will be, 'We Ought Not Keep Good Tidings to Ourselves." Following business and meetings of district committee, supper will be served in the church parlors.

At 7, a fellowship hour will be conducted for the young guests at Harding High School. A transportation committee in charge of Lloyd Johnston will use cars to take them to the school.

A CANDLELIGHT vesper service at the church at 9:30 will include a sermon by Rev. Hollensen. The Emanuel Church High School Choir will sing. Following, the young people will be introduced to their hosts and will be taken for the night to the respective homes where they will receive breakfast the following morning.

Opening session Saturday will be at 8:30 a.m. with devotions in charge of the district literature committee. Mrs. Richard Curren of the host church will serve as organist. The speaker will be Rev Henry Hoesman, executive director of evangelism of the denomination. His address will be on "God Draws the Strangers Unto His People." Following business and project clinics, noon luncheon will be in the church parlors.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON speaker will be Prof. Robert Spieler of the seminary of Capital University at Columbus. "Luther League in the Church" will be his topic. An hour of fellowship and recreation at the YMCA will follow, and at 5:30, the tour of Harding High School will be held.

Toastmaster for the banquet at 6:30 at the school will be Rev. Charles Mullen of Dayton. Rev. Otto Ebert, president of the Ohio District, will speak on "God Teaches Jonah Mercy and Patience."

Convenion members will attend Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday, and Rev. Hollensen will teach the Sunday School lesson to the entire adult department. At 10:30 a.m. worship service, Rev. Paul C. Empie, executive director of the National Lutheran Council in New York will preach. Following dinner in the church parlors, the convention will close. Mrs. L. G. Jones, sponsor of the Emanuel Luther League, will be the convention registrar, assisted by a group of committees from various organizations of the congregation.

Annual 'Pheasant' Dinner Held, but Turkey Is Served

Six couples who have met annually for a pheasant dinner observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of the event Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar G. Morral at Morral.

It was at the home of Sunday's host and hostess that the first dinner was held and since that time the group has met the first Sunday after the opening of the hunting season, at the various homes.

This year is the first that pheasant was not the main attraction of the meal. Instead the game birds were replaced by a 20-pound turkey, due to the last-minute postponement of the opening of this year's hunting season. This year's dinner also rated a three-tiered anniversary cake with rosebud trim and completing the table appointments were tall lighted white candles.

The unusual gathering had its beginning when Mr. and Mrs. Sam Myers who were visiting at the Morral home, and their hosts spied some pheasants in the yard. A dinner was planned and friends invited. With the exception of one year that Mr. Myers was in the armed services the couples have all been present for the annual dinner. The 1954 dinner will be with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young of Columbus.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter of Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley Rogers of Alger, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. James Parker of Morral and the host and hostess.

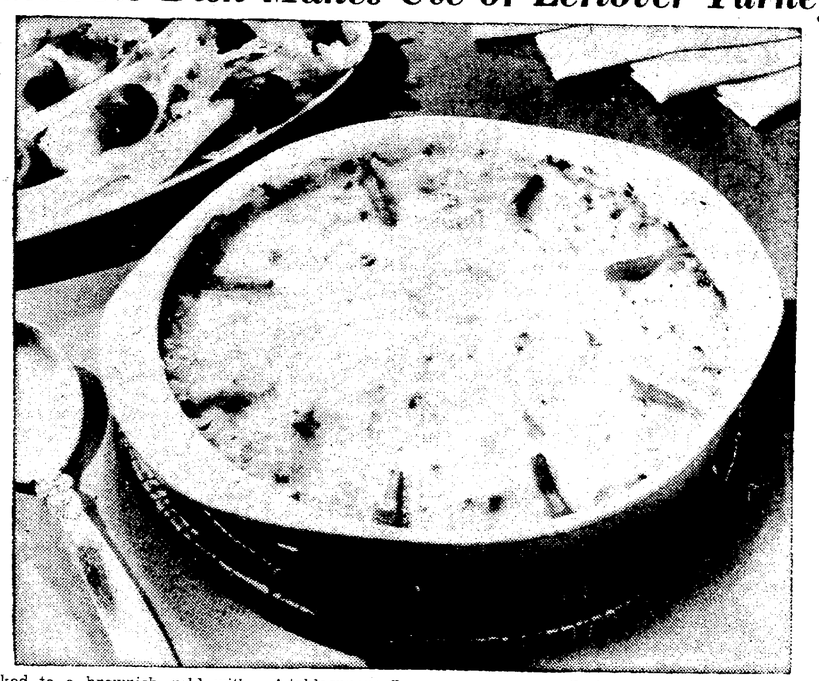
Casserole Dish Makes Use of Leftover Turkey



Baked to a brownish gold with a sizzling cheese topping, this casserole dish is a savory blend of tantalizing flavors.

To prepare, you can use your leftover Thanksgiving turkey but it's so good the family will want it often, any season of the year.

Use

2½ cups uncooked broad noodles, broken in pieces
4 tablespoons shortning
4 tablesppons flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon celery salt
2 cups milk
1 cup grated American cheese
2 cups cooked turkey (or chicken) cut in pieces.
3 tablespoons pimiento, chopped
3 tablespoons parsley, chopped
2½ tablespoons onion, chopped
½ cup grated cheese

Cook noodles until tender as directed on package. Melt shortening in saucepan, add flour and seasonings, and blend. Stir in milk gradually; cook and stir over low heat until thickened. Add 1 cup cheese and stir until cheese is melted. Add cooked noodles, turkey, pimento, parsley, and onion and mix well. Pour into 2-qt. casserole. Sprinkle ½ cup cheese over top. Bake in moderate over (350F.) 55 minutes, or until bubbly and browned. . . . Makes 5-6 servings.

Hands Out $5,000 a Year

Rewarding Policemen Is Hollywood Man's Hobby

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This isn't "Help Your Policeman Week," but Bert Guterman thinks there's no time like the present for showing cops you're glad they're around.

Guterman's hobby is rewarding outstanding cops—with money.

He has set up a standing reward of $100 to be presented each month to the "outstanding policeman or sheriff's deputy" in line of dity. Altogether, he spends $5,000 a year rewarding good cops all over the country with cash gifts or trophies. "It helps their morale," he says.

Guterman, a retired furniture manufacturer, met and liked some policemen on a train out of New York City 40 years ago. That started it.

As a by-product of his hobby he has a gun collection he vaules at $50,000 on display at his Hollywood home. Nearly every weapon was used in a crime of violence. They were presented to him by police.

Policemen, detectives and sheriffs have given him more than 550 police badges from all over the world. Seven badges are studded with diamonds. One Los Angeles deputy sheriff's badge with seven diamonds is valued at $2,000.

As an unofficial ambassador of good will, Guterman travels throughout the nation visiting police departments and exchanging ideas with police officers — from commissioners to rookies.

Guterman always is in the midst of a fight to increase a city's police budget. He is always for the good cop.

"I have one motive and that is to bring cooperation between citizens and police officers," he says.

"I never ask for a favor."

Grocer Hands Out 2,000 Free Tickets to Concert

CINCINNATI (AP)—A grocer with a love for music—and an ear for public relations — presented the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra free last night to 2,000 Cincinnati concert-goers.

William H. Albers, sponsor of the pop concert, made no bones about why he would support two more similar programs this season. The music is good advertising for his business.

Tickets are given away at Alber's many stores.

Husband Doused Wine on Her, Says Model in Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The judge leaned forward yesterday when Billie Infante, a pretty model seeking a divorce from her husband Anthony, testified:

"Once he immersed me in wine."

"Immersed you in what?" Judge I. L. Harris shot back.

"In wine."

"Oh, how did he do it?"

"Poured it over my head."

"In other words, he didn't dunk you in a bathtub or anything. Was it red or white wine?"

"As a matter of fact, it was red."

"A bottle or a glass?"

"A glass."

"Not exactly total immersion then," the judge said, winding up the matter.

Divorce granted.

Thief Makes Mistake, Steals Swan, Not Goose

NORWALK, Conn. (AP)—That fowl stolen from Pete Hettings' ranch is no Thanksgiving bird, he announced today. He said it's a young swan, not a goose, and would make a pretty tough holiday dish.

The rancher, who values the swan at $125, says he'll give the thief a goose, however, and will ask no questions if the swan is returned.

Pike Chairman Studies Earlier Opening Date

Toll Road Could Be Ready Dec. 1, 1954 For Extra $400,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The chairman of the Ohio Turnpike Commission says he will confer with state officials before deciding whether to advance by 10 months the scheduled opening of the eastern end of the 241-mile highway.

Chairman James W. Shocknessy says he wants advice from Gov. Frank J. Lausche and state highway director Samuel O. Linzell on two sets of bids which came before the commission yesterday.

The commission had asked for bids specifying completion of turnpike sections in Mahoning County by Dec. 1, 1954, or Oct. 1, 1955. The latter date is the date scheduled for completion of the entire Northern Ohio Turnpike.

A bid for completion by the earlier date was some $400,000 higher than the bid for completion in 1955. But commission estimates show additional toll revenues from the earlier opening date would offset more than three fourths of the difference.

In other actions at yesterday's meeting the commission:

1. Turned down all bids on three sections of toll road in Wood and Ottawa counties because of a technicality.

2. Awarded Peter Kiewit Sons' Co. and Condon-Cunningham Co. of Columbus a contract to build 7.8 miles of turnpike in Sandusky County on low bid of $6,277,853.

3. Decided to take bids Jan. 21 on two types of toll collection systems.

4. Decided to take bids on three most westerly sections of the turnpike in Williams County as well as on one section in Cuyahoga and Lorain counties, east of Elyria.

5. Voted itself the right to buy its headquarters building at 139 E. Gay St., in Columbus, for $165,000.

6. Received reports listing disposal of 128 land appropriation cases with 149 cases still pending as to final settlement.

County Basketballers Open League Chase Tonight

8 Squads To Begin Action; Championship Hopes High

By MIKE HUBER

Eleven basketball teams went through their final practice sessions this week in preparation for the 21st opening of the Marion County League tonight.

Claridon, winner of last year's tournament, looks like the team to watch. But with several returning lettermen, Morral could make this its year.

Waldo, defending league champion, and New Bloomington, tournament runner-up, are two question marks.

Prospect has a host of returning veterans and should be in the running all year. Caledonia may be the surprise of the league with a team composed mostly of last year's reserves who were tops in the county with a 14-1 record.

With high-scoring Dick Sharp and four other lettermen, Meeker should be able to do better than the 10th place it wound up in last year.

At present Green Camp, Pleasant, LaRue and Martel don't look as though they will threaten anyone except each other.

Tonight's games find Claridon at Martel, Pleasant at Waldo, New Bloomington at Morral and Prospect at Caledonia. Meeker is inactive for the first round.

Claridon Improved

Claridon't hopes are high.

Gene Jessie, who topped the county scoring column last year with 181 points, is one of four lettermen returning from last season's squad which won the county tournament after finishing third in league play with a 7-3 record.

Although graduation deprived Claridon of Lonnie Earl, who was fifth in county scoring with 167 points, his place at guard will be filled by Gary Price. A transfer from Pleasant, Price tallied 165 points there last year to become the county's sixth-ranking scorer.

The lettermen returning with Jessie are Kenny Smith, Dean Pickett and Gary Row. Row, however, will be on the bench a few more weeks with cracked ribs he received in the season's last football game.

Two sophomores, Robert Johnson and Larry Row, saw a lot of action in Claridon's two non-league tilts this year. In those games Coach Allen Augenstein's varsity downed Edison 53-45 and Scioto Valley 45-40.

If tradition means anything, Claridon should get a lot of help from that department. During the 20 years the county league has been in operation, the Hornets have won or shared 10 titles and seven tournaments.

New Coach

A new coach, Ralph Weber, is taking over the Waldo squad which last year won the league championship but left the tournament in the first round.

Only two lettermen, brothers George and Don Yake, are returning. But Weber is counting heavily on a host of returning reserves, Keith Augenstein, Rex Henry, brothers Dale and Stanley Yake, Bob Smith and Ronald Schults.

So far Weber's first five finds Dale Yake and Augenstein at the forwards, Don Yake at center and George Yake and Henry at the guard spots.

In its two outings this season, Waldo posted a 54-42 win over Scioto Valley and lost to Radnor 50-44.

At New Bloomington, Coach Harry Alexander has Dave Johnson and Bob Schwarderer as the only regulars returning from last year's squad which placed fourth in league standings and finished runner-up to Claridon in the tourney.

Graduatio took Jim Mowery, John James and Dwight Harruff, the three men who paced New Bloomington's offensive attack. Harruff was the squad's leading scorer in county play with 158 points. James Boblenz is another who isn't back from last year.

Alexander will be relying on Roger Boles and Bill Gracely, both up from last year's reserve squad, and Jack Brinkley and Floyd, both up from junior high. Boles, standing about 6', is the tallest man on a squad that averages around 5-10.

A senior likely to see a lot of action is John Boblenz who has been kept off the court since his freshman year with a back injury.

Morral Loaded

Morral looks like one of this year's strongest teams. The entire starting lineup is back from last year when Morral, finished second in the league and went to the tournament quarter-finals.

Leading the seven returning lettermen is Center John Craycraft who was the team's top scorer in league play with 153 points. He is again pacing Morral's attack, garnering 51 markers in the squad's three non-league tilts this year.

Returning with Craycraft is Clair Hensel, the brother of Coach Vern Hensel. He has tallied 47 points so far this year.

The other three starters returning are Ted Murphy, Junior Bell and Jim Shifflet. Charles Rice and John Neal are the two other returning lettermen. Hensel also expects to get a lot of playing time out of Manny Saxton and

Paul Cameron Turns in Top Backfield Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Tailback Paul Leslie Cameron, guiding football genius at UCLA, today was named the Associated Press Back of the Week for leading the Bruins to a victory over Southern California and into the Rose Bowl.

Cameron, a Burbank, Calif., native who has been singled out for his all-around ability and team leadership throughout the season, scored the touchdown that clinched UCLA's 13-0 triumph.

The six-foot, 185-pound senior is the ace runner, best passer and the team punter in addition to being one of the Pacific Coast leaders in pass interceptions.

Against the Trjoans, Cameron cracked through the tough USC line for the last six yards in the final period after sprinting 12 yards to set it up. His punts and kick returns were instrumental in bottling up the Trojans.

It was the climax of a great year for Cameron, whose specialty as a triple-threat back in Coach Red Sanders' single wing is a pet off-tackle play. Last year he was able to play only in spots due to injuries but he wasn't hampered this season.

Quarterbacks Francis (Cotton) Davidson of Baylor and Bernie Faloney of Maryland were runner-ups this week.

Y Invitational Opens Tonight; 3 Tilts Slated

The YMCA Invitational Basketball Tournament will get under way tonight on the south gymnasium floor with three games.

Marion Power Shovel and Calvary Evangelical will inaugurate the Y season at 7 p.m. Marion Industries and North Electric of Mt. Gilead will meet in the second tilt at 8 and Alloy Cast Steel and Bird-McGinnis will tangle at 9 p.m.

The tournament will officially begin the start of a long YMCA adult basketball program. For the first time in many years local and out-of-town teams will have the opportunity to compete on a floor large enough to provide adequate playing room and spectator space. The new Marion YMCA floor in addition to having these important characteristics is also one of the best lighted gymnasiums in the state.

The tourney, sponsored by the YMCA Basketball Committee, will continue Friday and Saturday of this week. Out-of-town powers will see action here on Friday and Saturday for the first time. The Farm Bureau A.C one of Columbus' best independent teams will meet the Marion A.C. Friday at 9 p.m. while Meyers Pumps of Ashland will not see action until Saturday when they meet the winner of the Waldo Merchants and Graven's of Bucyrus at 7. The Pythian Drugs of Columbus see action Saturday at 8 when they will tangle with the Ashley Merchants.

Mt. Victory Edges Meeker Team 71-67

Meeker's high school cage crew bowed to a sharpshooting Mt. Victory last night in a non-league encounter 71-67.

The Marion County team jumped in to an 18-13 edge in the opening period but the Mt. Victory squad came roaring back to take a 32-31 halftime edge. A 24-point burst in the third stanza was too much for the Meeker team to overcome with 19 markers in the closing quarter.

Charles Furer paced the Mt. Victory attack with 24 points. Jim Harrison pumped in 23 while Jolliff finished with 16. Howard Dan sparked the Meeker attack with 19 markers with Ron Newland adding 15 and Larry Sims collecting 11.

The Meeker reserves notched a 42-25 win in a preliminary game Griffin with 16 points was the big gun. In a junior high game, Meeker rolled to a 46-23 verdict with Roy Bash scoring 16. Meeker opens its league action next week with La-Rue Friday at Meeker.

LEADS MIAMI CAGERS

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Bob Doll, 6-foot-1 senior guard from Portsmouth, will captain the 1953-54 Miami University basketball team. Doll scored 230 points last season when the squad won the Mid—American Conference title.

Bowling

Bill Guy led bowlers in the Craftsman League with his 225-602 Tuesday. Eight 200 games were rolled there where Marion Paint copped team honors with 946-2644. Marion Power Shovel League keglers at Marion Recreation were paced by Herb Clapsaddle's 223 and Frank Turner's 602. Nir 200 games were recorded. Team laurels were taken by Engineers with 983 and Welders with 2508. C. Seebach hit 211-547 to lead the way in the Automotive League. E. Swann turned in a 4-7-10 split there. Fleet Service's 818 and OK Cafe's 2352 the teams. Ten 200 games were thrown in the Sportsman's League with R. Chamberlain hitting 223 and F. Turner totaling 574. Huber had high series of 2662 while Red Top Beer rolled a 944 game.

Woody Will Be Back

Hayes Blames One-Platoon Plan for Reversals at OSU

CLEVELAND (AP)—Woody Hayes, who blames the new substitution rule for tired football players and tiredness for Ohio State's 20-0 loss to Michigan, was assured last night he will be retained as Buckeye coach.

Richard (Dick) Larkins, who spoke with the coach at a Cleveland OSU alumni banquet, said flatly that Hayes and his assistants would be back next year and added he made the announcement "just in case there had been doubt in any one's mind."

Hayes declared, "We don't come here for pity." and added, "I try never to alibi."

But the new rule doing away with platoon football, he said, 'was crammed down our throats or slipped in over our heads."

"I'll go along with such great coaches as Bigie Munn of Michigan State, Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech and many others who are opposed to the change."

He said injuries have "greatly increased" because "boys are permitted to stay in the game when they are tired or injured."

Later he added, "At Michigan, I knew we were a tired club. We started well, but didn't hold up, and the mistakes were mine, not the boys'."

King and Chavez Meet In TV Boxing Feature

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Canadian lightweight title holder Arthur King of Toronto squares of with fast punching Eddie Chavez in a 10-round fight tonight which may propel the winner into a favorable position for a future world championship go.

Chavez, 23-year-old California Mexican from San Jose, is ranked fifth among the world's leading 135-pounders. King is rated ninth.

The bout will be nationally televised out of Winterland Arena starting at 10 p. m. EST, by CBS. The referee and two judges will score it under the California system of 1 points to the round.

CAPTAINS OHIO U

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Lineman John Schwab is the choice of the Ohio University Mid—American Conference champions to captain the 1954 team. Selection was announced at the annual football banquet here yesterday. Other honors went to Lou Sawchik of Cleveland, candidate for Little All-America end, named most valuable player; Tom Ascani, Canton, best back, and Bob Penrod, New Lexington, most valuable lineman.

Indians Find Short Fence a Big Advantage

CLEVELAND (AP)—Don't tell the Cleveland Indians to take down their portable outfield fence. It's one of their biggest advantages.

A study of statistics shows the Tribe hit three times as many homers over the barrier as visting clubs last season. At the same time the Clevelanders socked fewer home runs into the stands than visting sluggers did.

To Tribe General Manager Hank Greenberg the "answer is simply that instead of being strictly pull hitters, our players hit the long ball to all fields."

"That's one reason why we have so much trouble winning on the road, especially in Yankee Stadium," he said. "Long balls hit to left-center and right-center there are just long outs."

The visitors hit 26 home runs into the stands against the Tribe's 25. But the Indians kocked 65 over the fence to a mere 20 for the opposition.

Greenberg said the figures prove that the fence erected when Bill Veeck was president of the club back in 1947 "helps us considerably."

Many fans have wondered whether it was doing the team any

George Jacoby Named Ohio's Most Valuable

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University football players have chosen co-captain George Jacoby the Buckeyes' most valuable player this season.

An All-Big Ten tackle last year, Jacoby was selected for the 1953 Associated Pres All-Big Ten team. He played 404 minutes of a possible 540 this year, missing the Purdue game because of a fractured toe.

Jacoby is from Toledo.

Groza, Browns Test Cardinals, NFL's Spoilers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns' Lou Groza, sighting over the fingers of Tommy James for a new field goal record, will be kicking Sunday against the Chicago Cards, the club that finally broke up his record-breaking string of conversions.

Groza, setting a new National Football League record, had booted 109 consecutive points after touchdowns since 1949 before Volney Peters blocked his boot in the second game this season.

The big tackle hasn't missed a conversion since and has been successful on 17 of 20 field goal attempts. That leaves him just two field goals short of the league record he establisned last year.

With 76 points — including 25 extra points — Groza leads the league in scoring. Detroit's Doak Walker, the No. 2 scorer, has three touchdowns, 23 conversions and 10 field goals—for 71 points.

Twice this season and 11 times before, big Lou's kicking have been the difference between victory and defeat for the Browns. The two three-pointers he kicked last Sunday beat Pittsburgh, 20-16, and the three he toed the week before shaded San Francisco, 3-21.

So accurate is "The Toe" that the Browns seldom punt on fourth down from anywhere on their opponents' side of midfield. They just center the ball to James, who sets it up for a field goal try by Groza.

The Cards haven't won a game all season although they have been "spoilers" twice. Besides ending Groza's conversion string they tied the tough Los Angeles Rams two weeks ago, knocking the West Coast team out of a three-way tie for first place in pro football's Western Division.

Cleveland, with nine straight wins, leads the Eastern Division and could clinch an eighth straight division championship Sunday with a victory over the Cards. They are now two and a half games ahead of the Philadelphia Eagles with three to go.

While the Browns' offense is still sound—with the kicking of Groza and the passing of league-leading Otto Graham—their defensive unit has been slowed by injuries, particularly in the center of the line.

And because of that Groza, who normally plays tackle only on offense, has been getting a little more tackling duty.

Lawler Makes Debut

Harding Opens New Gym As Cagers Meet Bexley

Marion basketball fans will get their first looks at both the 1953-54 Harding basketball squad and the new Harding gym tonight when the Prexies open the court season against Bexley.

Tonight will also mark the debut of Harding's Jim Lawler into the high school coaching ranks.

Lawler moved up to the post from Vernon Junior High where he had turned out championship football and basketball squads. He is taking the post vacated last spring by Kenny Somerlot who moved up to become athletic coordinator. George Keel, former Harding assistant coach, had been named to the job but resigned to accept the coaching assignment at Kenton High School.

For tonight's opening action Lawler expects to use Dave Schnelker, 6-2, at center; Max Kaelber, 6-0, and Donnie Smith, 5-7, at the forwards: and Marv McFann, 6-0, and Ron Conroy, 5-8½ in the guard slots.

Two of Harding's varsity players will be on the sidelines. Joe Snouffer will be out of action for a couple of games with a torn shoulder tendon, while Doug Bibler is being slowed up with the recurrance of a football shoulder injury.

Harding will use the fast break attack, operating with a double pivot setup. It will be a man-to-man defense for the Prexies.

Others dressing for tonight's game are Bob Hamor, Larry Geissler, Gene Armstrong, Phil Carroll, Fred Price and Chet King.

The Harding reserve squad averages taller than the starting varsity lineup, a situation that should keep the regulars hustling. Frank D'Eramo and Ed Rudolph stand 6-4 while Lowell McFann hits 6-3. Lowell Carlisle and Ted Bibler are both 6-2 with Dave Lockwood standing an even 6-0.

A brief pre-game ceremony will mark the dedication of the new gymnasium.

Bevo Francis Rio Team Open Cage Schedule

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Clarence (Bevo) Francis puts his wares on display here tomorrow night before a houseful of college basketball fans who are among the most critical in the nation.

Bevo and his mates from little Rio Grande College are the headliners in the first doubleheader of the 1953-54 season in Buffalo's 12,000-seat Memorial Auditorium.

Actually, Coach Newt Oliver's lads probably won't get a real test here, except that they'll be playing before fans who are used to the best the college game has to offer.

Rio Grande meets Erie Tech, a two-year school. In the other half of the program, Canisius opens its season against Western Ontario.

Bevo, a 6-9 giant who startled the basketball world with 1,054 points last year, is embarking on a season that should prove whether he is truly a basketball phenomenon. Oliver, who has coached Francis both in high school and college, described him in direct fashion:

"He's just the greatest player in the college game today—maybe the greatest of all time."

Time will tell. Time and such opponents as Villanova, Miami (Fla.), North Carolina State and Wake Forest, And the experts in Madison Square Garden will have a chance to pass judgment, too, when Rio Grande plays Adelphi here Dec. 3.

GIRLS TAG TEAM, CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH LEADING 'BIG THANKSGIVING DAY MAT CARD

CORA COMBS

Turkey may be "King" Thursday to a lot of wrestling fans but Les Fishbaugh has signed for his Thanksgiving card one of the biggest attractions ever seen at the Marion Armory starting at 8:30. It will be a double main event with four of the country's top girls taking part in a tag team match. JOYCE FORD and BARBARA BAKER team up against CORA COMBS and BONNIE WATSON. A return championship between BILLY FOX and SCOTTIE WILLIAMS will highlight the other 2 out of 3 fall match. Williams won the tri-state gold belt from Fox about a month ago and Fox has been asking for a return match. The opener also will be all star because it is between the Ohio State Colored Star, Ricky Waldo, and the Masked Marvel. Prices, $1.00-$1.50, Kids 50 cents. Better call Markert & Lewis early for choice ringside seats to this "BIG" Attraction.

Barons Meet Grand Rapids Here Tonight

Marion's high-flying Barons hope to fly from seventh to third place tonight by notching a win over Grand Rapids at the Coliseum.

With all other clubs in the International Hockey League inactive tonight, a win will vault the Barons into a third place tie with Troy, Fort Wayne and Toledo.

In league action last night, Toledo moved from sixth to third with a 4-0 win over Milwaukee. The move dropped Marion from sixth into a seventh-place tie with Louisville.

The Barons are currently enjoying their most successful streak of the season. They've won their last two games, including a 2-1 decision over league-leading Cincinnati, and have racked up victories in four of their last five outings. The streak has seen the Barons climb out of the league cellar.

But if the Barons are hot, so are the Louisville Shooting Stars, Marion's partners in seventh place. The Louisville club is riding the crest of a four-game winning streak and will be after number five when it meets Milwaukee tomorrow night.

Marion's victory over Cincinnati Sunday was performed before the second largest Coliseum crowd of the season, 3,452. It was the Mohawks' first defeat since Oct. 25.

Tonight's hockey action is scheduled to get underway at 8:30.

$375,000 Delaware Bridge Is Opened

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — While finishing touches are being applied, traffic will roll over the new $375,000 Olentangy River bridge on E. William St.

The bridge was officially opened to traffic Monday night when contractors did not set barricades in place at quitting time. Plans for closing the bridge during working hours were dropped at the request of state highway department engineers.

Concrete center islands and sodding of the center area is yet to be completed. Blacktopping of the approaches and roadway through the bridge was completed Monday.

Basketball

Shifflet will be out of the lineup for a few more weeks until he is recovered from a recent operation.

In three outings this year, Morral lost to Sulpher Springs 78-59, but defeated Iberia 65-63 and Marseilles, a court power in Wyandot County, 70-50.

At Prospect Coach Bob Kelly has an encouraging situation with eight lettermen returning for this year's campaign. Leading the group is Wayne Seiters, last year's high scorer whose 136 points placed him 14th in county scoring.

A junior, Bob Emery, is Prospect's tallest man at 6-2.

Prospect has split even so far this year with a 60-43 victory over Radnor and a 67-62 loss to Iberia.

Last year Prospect wound up seventh in the league with a 5-5 record and finished third in the county tournament.

Donians Dark Horse

Caledonia could be the league's dark horse.

Only one letterman, Joe Green, is returning from last year's team which tied for third and went to the finals in the tournament's consolation bracket. But Coach Len Walls has a host of men coming up from last year's reserve squad which posted an impressive 14-1 record.

The reserves around whom Walls will build his team are Bob Dickerson, Ervin Hunt, Bob Hill, Gene Rice, Doug Whitamire, Jaek Whitamire and Paul Layman. Walls said that he is pleased with the performance of George Cochren, a senior trying the sport for the first time.

One disadvantage that faces Caledonia is height. Dickerson is the tallest at just over 6' on a team that averages around 5-9.

Another problem is finding a man to take the place of Jim Kirk, the team's scoring ace last year. He finished second in league scoring with 180, just one point behind Claridon's Gene Jessie. Rice might be the man to fill the bill. He led the attack with 24 points in Caledonia's 63-42 victory over Marengo.

Hit by Graduation

With all of last year's starters gone, Green Camp Coach Maurice Young has to rebuild his squad around his one letterman, Al Stover.

With only 12 men out for the squad, Young hopes to get the most out of Bob Bish, Jack Green, George Rush, Louie Finch and Bob Wilson.

In all, seven men are gone from last year's team which had a 6-4 record to tie New Bloomington for fifth place and went to the semi-finals in the tournament. One of the missing men is Gene Marsh, a forward who raked seventh in county scoring with 160 points.

Green Camp has yet to win a game after four non-league starts this year and its league opener last night at LaRue.

A series of bad breaks has hit Charles Brobeck in his attempt to prep Pleasant for a better season than it had last year when it was seventh in the league and couldn't get past the first round of the tourney.

First off, he lost Bob Baughman, Bernard Martin and Gerald Romano through graduation. Then 6-2 Gene Bowman decided not to come out after getting married. But Brobeck's toughest break was when the team's high scorer, Gary Price, transferred to Claridon.

To top it off, the squad's tallest man ,Charles Leffler at 6', hurt his leg in a game with Mt. Victory and will be out of action for a couple of weeks.

Brobeck's first five will come from six men. They are the two returning lettermen, John Freshour and Jerry Gorby, and Leffler, Pete Owings, David Moyer and Jim Sellers. A guard, Eddie Dennison, is also likely to see a lot of action.

In two games this year Pleasant has lost to Johnsville 73-45 and Mt. Victory 68-48.

LaRue Boasts Experience

Ted Dennison expects that a year's aging and experience will improve his LaRue squad. Last year the Indians were ninth in the league standings and lost their second round tournament game.

Dennison lost four regulars but still has three other letterwinners, Gene Cooper, Larry Hickman and Ray Hosey. He also expects to make a lot of use of Keith Cooper, Robert Hughes, Norm Buyer Bill Guthery and Phil Weist, a senior who played two years ago bu didn't turn out for the squad his junior year.

Dennison plans to use Hickman and Gene Cooper at the forwards, Hosey or Guthery at center, and Keith Cooper and Hughes or Weist at the guards.

LaRue lost its first game this year, bowing to Mt. Victory 62-50 but last night whipped Green Camp 70-54.

This year's picture is a little brighter at Meeker where last year the team wound up 10th in the league with a 1-9 record.

Coach Walker Huffman lost only one starter, Joe Prettyman. He has back five letterwinners, including guard Dick Sharp who paced the team in scoring and was seventh in league point-making with 158.

Five Return

Back with Sharp are Howard Lean, Ned Hudnall, Ralph Wenig and Dick VanMeter. Huffman is also counting on three of last year's reserves, Ronald Newland, Bob Johnson and Larry Sims, and Ronald Griffin, a transfer from Roundhead High School.

Martel can go no place but up. Last year's squad was at the bottom of the league standings with a 0-10 record and bowed out of the tournament in the second round after drawing a first-round bye.

Graduation took Martel's big man, center Gale Loyer who tallied 171 points to rank third in the county.

In his first year of high school coaching, Bill Anderson has five lettermen around which to build his squad. They are Gary Baer, Kenny Barden, Dale Linstedt, James Miner and Bob Moodespaugh. A graduate of Western Kentuck, State College, Anderson is a recently discharged Marine.

Mercury passes between the earth and the sun about 13 times a century on the average.

LaRue Wins Game From Green Camp

LaRue and Green Camp opened the Marion County Basketball League race last night at LaRue with the home team taking a 70-54 decision.

The Indians built up a 16-13 edge in the first period and at the half led 32-25. They held a 50-42 margin at the start of the final quarter and a 20-point splurge sealed the win.

Larry Hickman dumped in 25 markers to lead the attack while Gene Cooper chipped in with 18. Ray Hosey had 15 points for Coach Ted Dennison's crew. Al Stover netted 14 points to lead Maurice Young's Green Camp squad. George Rush added 11.

The LaRue reserves won a preliminary game 32-24. Phil Blue dumped in 11 points to top the scoring. Schultz was high for the Green Camp futures with seven.

GREEN CAMP

Bish 3, 0, 6; Rush 3, 5, 11; Stover 6, 2 ,14; Schultz 0, 1, 1; Finch 2, 6, 10; Wasserbeck 1, 1, 3; Wilson 4, 1, 9.

Radnor Cops 65-47 Win at Lexington

RADNOR — Radnor upped its 1953-54 basketball mark to 3-2 by downing Lexington 65-47 on the losers' court Tuesday night.

Coach Dick Meyer's five raced to a 17-4 first quarter margin and was never in danger thereafter.

Andy Thompson, Radnor center, led the way with 27 points. John Robinson and Don Maxwell, guards, supported Thompson's performance with 15 and 14 points respectively. Dale Ford, Lexington forward, was high for his team with 16 markers.

Lexington's futures notched a 48-44 overtime win in the preliminary reserve contest. Jerry Salyer dropped in ten points for the losers. Radnor next sees action when Pleasant comes here next Tuesday.

Jailed Despite Rights

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—Hobert Foster, 40, lost a game of hide and seek with vice squad detectives here after he stood on his constitutional rights.

The detectives went to Foster's home to check a report that whiskey was being bootlegged. Foster who met them at the door, reminded the officers that he "knew his rights" and that thy had to have a search warrant.

The detectives hid around the corner until Foster came out the back door with a bushel basket full of whiskey bottles. The detectives grabbed a bottle and arrested Foster.

More Notes on Humor

The present low state of American humor, not only on the air but—let's face it—almost everywhere, is not entirely the fault of the performers or of the humorists. A lot of the blame can be laid at the door of the public or, at least, certain broad areas of the public, which doesn't seem to want humor of the traditional sort or even to comprehend it.

J. CROSBY

In this connection, Jim Backus, who plays Joan Davis' husband on "I Married Joan," told me a story that was very illuminating. Backus had just been one of the featured entertainers at a big shindig in Cleveland celebrating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Scripps-Howard newspapers. Before an audience of some 11,000 people, Backus, whose home town is Cleveland, tried vainly to tell some jokes.

"BUT THEY WON'T LET you tell a joke," he said. "I tried to tell that old one about the movie star. He makes $3,000 a week, has a beautiful home and swimming pool, takes Marilyn Monroe out every night and in 25 years he's a has-been. But look where he has been. Well, the moment I mentioned Marilyn Monroe, the audience went out of its mind. Screamed and yelled and applauded. I couldn't finish the joke. But no one seemed to mind.

"Then I started to tell some stories about my boyhood in Cleveland. I'd start out saying: 'I was walking down Euclid avenue' . . . and that's as far as I'd get. At the mention of Euclid avenue, 11,000 people would start yelling. After that, I just dropped street names. I'd say 105th street — and the people would go crazy."

This is an inevitable extension of the deplorable habits studio audiences fell into at radio shows. If a line particularly tickled them, the audience would first laugh, then applaud. Then laughter was dropped altogether, as unnecessary, and the audience would just applaud. It has always seemed to me that applause is not a proper response to humor. If a man says something funny, I laugh. Applause is for other things.

NOW, IT APPEARS, the audience is so anxious to get on with the applause that they won't tarry long enough to hear the joke. Just drop a street name or mention Eddie Fisher — and they're off. for the comedians — but what will future generations think of us?

In the passage of years, humor tarnishes more easily than any other form of writing but ours is going to be hard even to pass on to future generations. Take, as an example, Oscar Wilde's bon mot: "A second marriage is a triumph of hope over experience." Through the years, it has lost some of it savor but, at least, it still makes sense.

Now, just supposing 50 years from now, some historian of humor started prowling through our current humor files. He would come upon Jack Benny saying "Rochester!" in a certain tone of voice. And there would be torrents of laughter. Or Mr. Backus dropping street names as thousands cheer. Our future historian is likely to conclude we were a nation of idiots.

NOT TO TAKE TOO DIM a view of it, there are still some very funny things on the air that frequently hit you in unexpected places. I rather like this one which was related by Arthur Godfrey.

"There once was a small boy of eight years who had a slingshot, a half-dozen marbles, a broken jacknife, a partly eaten peppermint stick, 30 feet of twisted and knotted kite string, a live frog and three well-used handkerchiefs in his pocket. His mother told him to get rid of the stuff. He did. He dumped it all into her pocketbook and she didn't discover it for three weeks."

Or Herb Shriner talking about the new atomic submarine: "It only comes up once every three years so the boys can re-enlist."

Erie Declares $1 Dividend on Common Stock

A dividend of one dollar a share on Erie Railroad common shares was declared Tuesday by the board of directors of the raiload. The dividend payable on Dec. 15 to holders of record Dec. 4, brings the total 1953 payment to $1.75.

A payment of 75 cents was made in June. The total this year is the same as has been paid shareholders during the last three years.

At the same time, Paul W. Johnson, Erie president, predicted the net income for the year would be about $12,650,000 or $4.34 a share. Last year, the income was $13,223,521 or $4.57 a share.

Johnson said the operating revenues this year are about $6,500,000 more than in 1952, and should reach the $183 million mark. Operating expenses are expected to be only $1,500,000 more than last year.

Income from the operation of the railroad will be greater this year than last, but a decrease in dividends paid by subsidiary companies accounts for the lower overall income.

The long term debt of the railroad was reduced by $9,400,000, Johnson announced. Equipment obligations were paid. Some two per cent bonds and general mortgage bonds were paid.

New Horse Owner Sees Mount Pay Off Heavily

SCARBOROUGH, Me. (UP) — Jules Schwartz worried when an ex-G.I. bought a four-year-old bay racing horse from him named Clean Up King. The horse hadn't won the price of oats in the two seasons Schwartz, a New Yorker, owned him.

Schwartz got to thinking it was a rough deal on the former soldier who was breaking into the horse business in a small way. So he offered to buy the horse back. But the former GI entered the bay at Scarboroguh Downs and Clean Up King cleaned up in his first outing, paying $20.

War in Korea Boosted South's Industrial Life

FRANKFORT, Ky. (UP) — The Korean fighting brought 97 new defense industries with investments totaling $217,858,000 to Kentucky, according to the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board.

Its studies covered only privately financed industries and ignored such things as the billion-dollar atomic energy plants in Kentucky and other southern states.

In the South, only Louisiana, Florida and Alabama attracted more new industry than Kentucky during the Korean struggle, the study said. Louisiana reported investments totaling $659.175.000 in 121 new or expanded facilities; Florida, $307,569.000 in 64 facilities; Alabama, $230,767,000 in 118 plants.

THE HARD WAY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UP)—Lt. James T. Prater of the Florida Highway Patrol caught a speeding motorist the hard way. Prater was pursuing the speeder who crossed him up suddenly by obeying the law and stopping at a stop sign. Prater's patrol car crashed into the rear of the other.

Shovel Co. Stock Shows Increase After Dividend

The price of Marion Power Shovel Co. common stock rose one-fourth of a point or 75 cents per share over Monday's price in transactions yesterday at the American Stock Exchange in Chicago, it was reported today in the Chicago edition of the Wall Street Journal.

Directors of the company declared a common stock dividend of 30 cents per share yesterday, the first dividend for common shareholders since Jan. 2, 1929.

Power Shovel common stock sold at $18.25 all day yesterday with some 500 shares being sold.

This year's high price for Power Shovel common stock was $23.-75, the low $14.50.

The recently declared dividend is payable Feb. 1, 1954 to shareholders as of Jan. 20, 1954. At yesterday's meeting, the directors also declared a regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 per share on preferred stock.

Preferred stock arrearages were cleared up June 30 when the directors declared $77 per share dividend.

Preferred stock is roughly the equivalent of a first mortgage on the company's assets. No common stock dividend could be paid while dividends on the preferred stock were in arrears.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market held to a steady course today on the eve of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Prices were mixed over a range of around a point either way with many leading issues holding unchanged.

Trading was heavy early in the day and then tapered off to a pace around under yesterday's 1,47,000 shares.

Higher divisions of the market included steels, rubbers, aircrafts, distillers and most oils.

Higher stocks included Stana Fe, Texas Co., American Telephone, Dow Chemical, U. S. Steel, Goodrich, Boeing and Schenley Industries.

Among lower stocks were Union Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Sinclair Oil, Du Pont, Westinghouse Electric, and Zonite.

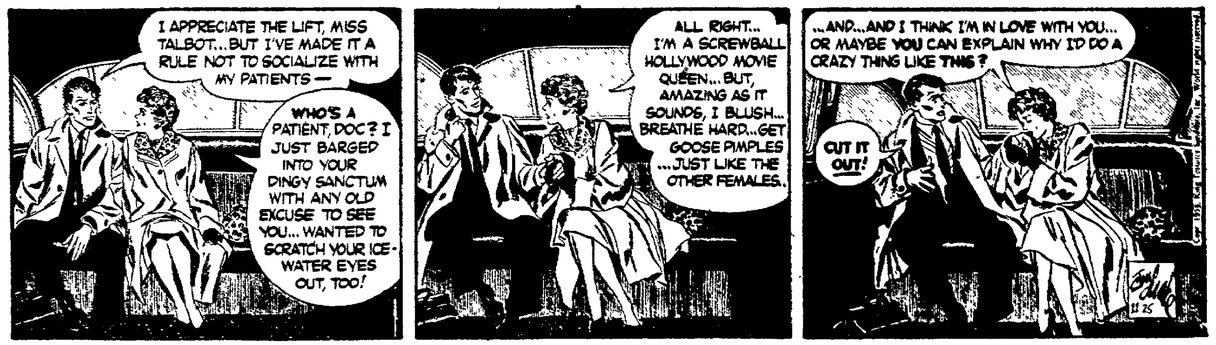
STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

I SAY DESTROY THE NO-SEE WOMAN BEFORE THE CURSED POX SPREADS TO ALL OF US, COBRA JOHNNY!
AND I SAY THE POX HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE YANKEE WOMAN! KILL HER, AND THERE WILL BE NO REWARD MONEY!
HOLD! THERE IS A SOUND!
IT IS A BIRD WAGON! IS THIS A TRICK? WHY IS HE HERE?
STEVE WAITS ANXIOUSLY FOR SOME SIGN OF RECOGNITION FROM THE PILOT FOR HIS S.O.S., BUT THE AIRCRAFT PASSES ON OVERHEAD...
MILTON CANIFF

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake



I APPRECIATE THE LIFT, MISS TALBOT...BUT I'VE MADE IT A RULE NOT TO SOCIALIZE WITH MY PATIENTS —
WHO'S A PATIENT, DOC? I JUST BARGED INTO YOUR DINGY SANCTUM WITH ANY OLD EXCUSE TO SEE YOU... WANTED TO SCRATCH YOUR ICE-WATER EYES OUT, TOO!
ALL RIGHT... I'M A SCREWBALL HOLLYWOOD MOVIE QUEEN... BUT, AMAZING AS IT SOUNDS, I BLUSH... BREATHE HARD...GET GOOSE PIMPLES ...JUST LIKE THE OTHER FEMALES.
...AND...AND I THINK I'M IN LOVE WITH YOU... OR MAYBE YOU CAN EXPLAIN WHY I'D DO A CRAZY THING LIKE THIS?
CUT IT OUT!

Brewery Officials Eye New Type Storage Tank

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—Your brew soon may be kept in tapering storage tanks before bottling instead of in the conventional round tank, the Pfaudler Co. reveals.

The new tapering tank is said to be the most radical shape change ets on top of a filled tank which sometimes cause oxidation and spoil the brew.

At least two major brewing companies have placed orders for the tanks and one concern is building a new plant to house more than 100 of them.

Boy Won't Do It Again

ROBINSON, Ill. (UP) — Five-year-old Greg Rich found a .45 caliber bullet, shoved it into his toy gun—which ordinarily shoots only corks—and pulled the trigger.

The bullet went off, shattering the gun, and pieces of the shell casing hit Greg in the cheek and left foot. He says he won't do it again.
